

■ VIP HOTEL HOSPITALITY ACTIVITY — COMMON RESOURCE PACK

B1 MASTERY — CI 11 Grammar — Miércoles 13/05/2026

> Este recurso lo reciben TODOS los estudiantes (sin importar su role card). Te ayuda a entender el contexto general + el vocabulario que escucharás de tus compañeros + las expresiones B2 que pueden subirte el nivel.

1. CONTEXT — WHAT IS HAPPENING

You are part of the staff of a luxury hotel hosting a business conference. A VIP guest arrives and experiences a problem during their stay. Your task: handle the situation professionally using your assigned role and the required grammar.

- 2 groups of students run in parallel, each with one B2/C1 guest
 - After 25 minutes, the guests switch — your group meets a different guest with a different problem
 - You stay in your assigned role for both rounds

2. HOTEL HOSPITALITY VOCABULARY — KEY TERMS BY ROLE

You don't need to memorize all of these — but you need to recognize them when your teammates use them. Pay attention to terms outside your own role too.

3. B2 SERVICE-RECOVERY EXPRESSIONS

These are expressions that any hospitality professional uses at B2 level. Memorizing 4-5 of them will lift your speaking. Use them in your responses.

Apologizing professionally

- "I'm terribly sorry for the inconvenience."
- "Please accept my sincerest apologies."
- "This falls well below our standards — I take full responsibility."
- "There seems to be a mix-up with..."

De-escalating an angry guest

- "Allow me to look into this for you right away."
- "Please bear with me while I sort this out."
- "Rest assured, we'll have this resolved shortly."
- "I completely understand your frustration."

Offering compensation

- "As a goodwill gesture, we'd like to offer you..."
- "Your stay tonight will be on the house."
- "May I offer you a complimentary upgrade as compensation?"
- "On behalf of the hotel, please accept..."

Escalating up the chain

- "Let me escalate this to my manager immediately."

- "I'll have the Duty Manager attend to you personally."
- "This requires the attention of our Reservations Manager."

Polite refusals / managing expectations

- "Unfortunately, that won't be possible at this time — however..."
- "What I can do, however, is..."
- "I'll do my utmost to accommodate that request."

4. GRAMMAR REMINDER — M12 + M13

Both grammar points appear in your role card as required production. Here's the refresher:

M12 — Past Simple vs Past Continuous

| Tense | Use | Form | Example |

|---|---|---|---|

| Past Simple | Specific moment, completed | V2 / V-ed | I arrived at 8 PM. |

| Past Continuous | Ongoing past action | was/were + V-ing | She was checking the system. |

| Both together | Short action interrupts long action | While X was V-ing, Y V-ed | While I was checking your reservation, the phone rang. |

Forced production: in YOUR role card, you must produce at least ONE sentence with the "While X was V-ing, Y V-ed" pattern.

M13 — Already / Still / Until

| Adverb | Meaning | Position | Example |

|---|---|---|---|

| ALREADY | Something happened EARLIER than expected | Between auxiliary and main verb | I have ALREADY informed the manager. |

| STILL | Something CONTINUES when you might expect it to stop | Between subject and verb | The technician is STILL working on it. |

| UNTIL | Up to a specific point in time | Before time reference | Wait UNTIL Friday. / She slept UNTIL noon. |

Forced production: in YOUR role card, you must produce at least ONE sentence with already, still, OR until (some roles require 2 or 3 of these).

5. WHAT WE EXPECT FROM YOU

- Use at least 5 vocabulary terms from your role
- Produce at least 1 sentence with M12 (While X was V-ing, Y V-ed)
- Produce at least 1 sentence with M13 (already / still / until)
- Use at least 1 B2 service-recovery expression from the list above
- Stay in role — don't break character even if it's uncomfortable
- When the guest gives feedback at the end, listen carefully — they speak B2/C1

6. REMINDER — WHY WE RECORD

We will photograph and film parts of this activity. This is FORTALEZA in action. Future B1 students in Colombia will see real Colombian B1 students doing real B2-level work. Showing courage on camera IS part of the lesson — not for you alone, but for everyone who comes after.

You with mistakes is more useful than a perfect actor. This is pride. This is service.

> The activity begins when your teacher gives the signal. Until then, study your role card.
