

■ 00:00–00:05 | VATS: VIRTUE OF THE WEEK — TEMPERANCE (5 min)Virtue of the week: TEMPERANCE

Write on the board:

TEMPERANCE — "What habit do you over-do? What would moderation look like?"

Say: "Daily ritual. TEMPERANCE this week. Pairs. English only — give it a try."

V (1 min): Read aloud. Point to board.A (30 sec): "Think in silence."T (2 min): "Pairs. Discuss."S (1.5 min): 2 students share with the class. No correction — celebrate the attempt.

> Daily opening ritual. Virtues rotate weekly: Prudence → Temperance → Justice → Fortitude.

■ ERROR PAPER REVIEW — DAY 6 (20 min)■ Use 'ANEXO_ERROR_PAPER_REVIEW.pdf' for the full protocol.Today is Day 6 — this block runs every 5 classes to review the accumulated errors from previous classes.Before class: coordination or the teacher fills in the table below with the Top 10 recurring errors from the last 5 classes (based on error papers). If not filled in, the teacher does it from memory at the start of the block.TODAY'S 10 ERRORS (fill in before / at the start of class):

| # | ■ Error heard | → | ■ Correct version |

|---|-----|---|-----|

| 1 | | → | |

| 2 | | → | |

| 3 | | → | |

| 4 | | → | |

| 5 | | → | |

| 6 | | → | |

| 7 | | → | |

| 8 | | → | |

| 9 | | → | |

| 10 | | → | |

Setup (1 min): Copy the 10 errors from the table onto the classroom board.Group modeling (8 min): For each error, say the WRONG version aloud without judgment. The class identifies what's wrong. You model the correct version. The class repeats 2 times. No-Listen-Repeat technique. Do NOT explain the grammar rule — only model.Pair drill (8 min): "Pairs. Person A says the wrong version. Person B corrects with the right one. Then switch. Go through all 10 errors."Close + commitment (3 min): Each student picks ONE error they most want to eliminate. They write in their notebook:I will stop saying: _____
I will say instead: _____

"In 5 classes I'll ask you about this. If you eliminated it: 5 English Points."

> No names. No shame. These are errors of language meeting the mouth, not personal failures. If your error paper was weak this week: report to coordination.■ 00:00–00:15 | ICEBREAKER: TWO TRUTHS AND A CONDITIONAL (15 min)

Each student says 3 sentences using conditionals — 2 true, 1 false. The class guesses which one is false. Example: "If I hadn't broken my leg last year, I would be playing soccer right now." "If I were rich, I would buy a helicopter." "If I had studied French, I would be living in Paris now." Go around twice. After each guess, the student reveals the answer and explains.

> Mixed conditionals will appear naturally: past cause → present result. Don't correct yet — just let them play.

■ 00:15–00:30 | ANALIZO: VIDEO REVIEW (15 min)

Homework from last class: watch your GRABO video and write 3 errors you heard.

First 5 min: In pairs, share your 3 errors. Help each other correct them.Last 10 min: Each student shares 1 error with the class. Class corrects together using the correction technique: Student says the wrong sentence → you say "No. Listen." → you say the correct version slowly → student repeats it twice. You don't explain WHY it's wrong. You just model what's right.

> If someone didn't do the homework: they watch a classmate's video RIGHT NOW and find 3 errors. No excuses.

■ 00:30–00:50 | BOOK: MODULE 4B — MIXED CONDITIONALS (20 min)What it's about: Mixed conditionals combine parts of 2nd and 3rd conditionals. Two types:

Type 1 — Past cause → Present result: "If I had studied medicine (past — but I didn't), I would be a doctor now (present)." Formula: If + past perfect, would + base verb.

Type 2 — Present cause → Past result: "If I were braver (present — but I'm not), I would have asked her out (past)." Formula: If + past simple, would have + past participle.

Key: the TIME in each clause is DIFFERENT. That's what makes them "mixed."

Say: "Open your B1 book to the Mixed Conditionals section. Read the explanation and ALL examples. You have 10 minutes."

First 10 min: They read in pairs. You don't speak. Walk around checking they're reading.

Last 10 min: Sit with each pair. THEY explain mixed conditionals to you. They give you examples of BOTH types. If wrong: "No. Listen." + correct version. They repeat. Next pair.

> You don't explain. They explain to you. If they can't explain the difference between the two types, they read again.

■ 00:50–01:10 | EXERCISES + ANSWER KEYS (20 min)

Say: "Do the exercises. Check answers with the Answer Key. Ask your partner first. If neither knows, raise your hand." WALK AROUND — give the correct version only (never explain rules). If 50%+ get the same thing wrong: STOP, write on the board, they repeat.

■ 01:10–01:45 | TBLT: ALTERNATE LIVES (35 min)

How it works: Students create an "alternate version" of their own life by changing ONE decision from their past. Then they describe how their PRESENT would be different. This forces mixed conditionals naturally — past cause, present result.

Step 1 — Choose (3 min). Each student picks ONE real decision from their past that changed their life. Examples: "I chose to study engineering instead of music." "I moved to this city." "I didn't go to that party where I met my partner." Write it down.

Step 2 — Build your alternate life (7 min). Each student writes 6 sentences describing their alternate present using mixed conditionals. Example: "If I had studied music, I would be performing in bars right now." "If I hadn't moved here, I would be living with my parents." "If I had gone to that party, I wouldn't know my partner."

Step 3 — Interview (15 min). Pairs. Student A interviews Student B about their alternate life as if it were real. "So you're a musician now? Where do you play? Do you enjoy it?" Student B answers IN CHARACTER, staying in the alternate life. Use mixed conditionals when comparing: "Well, if I had chosen music, I would be happier, but I wouldn't have money." Switch after 7 min.

Step 4 — Share (10 min). Each student presents their partner's alternate life to the class. "Maria said that if she hadn't become an engineer, she would be a famous pianist right now." Class asks follow-up questions.

> Walk around WITH error paper. WRITE DOWN every conditional error you hear.

01:45–02:05 | BREAK (20 min)

Students use phones. YOU:

- Search YouTube for a Shadowing clip (60-90 sec, someone reflecting on life decisions or talking about "what could have been" — interview, memoir clip, or motivational speech works great).

■ 02:05–02:25 | CORRECT THE TEACHER (20 min)

Story with 15 errors (10 min). Mix of WRONG mixed conditionals — wrong tense combinations, using same tense in both clauses when they should be different. Read slowly. Students shout "WRONG!" and say the correct version. Points per catch.

"I've been thinking about how different my life could be. If I studied harder in school, I would have a better job now. (1 — If I had studied — past event, needs past perfect) My friend Ana became a pilot. If she didn't become a pilot, she would be working in an office today. (2 — If she hadn't become — past event)

If I would be taller, I would have played basketball in university. (3 — If I were taller — present state) My brother speaks 4 languages. If he wouldn't speak so many languages, he wouldn't have gotten that job in Dubai. (4 — If he didn't speak — present ability)

I never learned to cook. If I would have learned to cook, I would be healthier now. (5 — If I had learned — past event) My sister is very shy. If she wasn't so shy, she would asked that guy out last week. (6 — would have asked — past event)

If I didn't break my phone yesterday, I would be calling you right now. (7 — If I hadn't broken — past event) I'm terrible at math. If I would be good at math, I would have studied engineering. (8 — If I were good at math — present trait)

My parents moved to Colombia 20 years ago. If they didn't move here, I would be living in Venezuela now. (9 — If they hadn't moved — past event) I'm not a morning person. If I would be a morning person, I would have accepted that 6am job. (10 — If I were a morning person — present trait)

I didn't learn to drive until last year. If I learned to drive earlier, my life would be easier now. (11 — If I had learned — past event) She's very organized. If she isn't so organized, she wouldn't have finished the project on time. (12 — If she weren't / wasn't — present trait)

If I would have traveled more when I was young, I would be more open-minded now. (13 — If I had traveled — past event) I'm allergic to cats. If I am not allergic, I would have adopted one last year. (14 — If I weren't / wasn't — present condition) If I didn't eat so much junk food as a teenager, I would be healthier today. (15 — If I hadn't eaten — past habit)

Pairs (10 min): 5 min each. One makes deliberate mixed conditional errors, the other corrects. Switch roles.

■ 02:25–02:45 | SHADOWING 5 STEPS (20 min)

YouTube on your phone. Video from break. Subtitles on student phones.

STEP 1 — LISTEN (3 min): Just listen. STEP 2 — WITH TEXT (4 min): Repeat with subtitles. STEP 3 — WITHOUT TEXT (4 min): Screens OFF.

STEP 4 — EYES CLOSED (3 min): Max concentration. STEP 5 — PAIR ROLE PLAY (6 min): No audio, pairs imitate from memory.

■ 02:45–03:05 | TRANSLANGUAGING: LIFE TURNING POINTS (20 min)

What is this? This is the ONLY activity where students can briefly use Spanish — as a BRIDGE, not a crutch. Students get 30 seconds of Spanish to understand/brainstorm, then they MUST switch to English and present their answer using mixed conditionals.

How to do it: Read one prompt. Pairs get 30 sec in Spanish to process. Then 3-4 min in English to discuss and present. Each pair shares their answer with the class. They MUST use mixed conditionals. If they don't, stop them: "Use a mixed conditional — past cause, present result." 3 prompts total.

Prompt 1: "Think of a skill you never learned (instrument, sport, language). If you had learned it, how would your life be different RIGHT NOW?"

Prompt 2: "Think of a person you lost contact with (friend, family, ex). If you hadn't lost contact, what would your relationship be like TODAY?"

Prompt 3: "Think of a country your parents almost moved to but didn't. If they had moved there, what would YOUR life look like now?"

> The Spanish is only to unblock understanding. The moment they have the idea, it's English only.

■ 03:05–03:25 | STEAM: TIMELINE REWRITE (20 min)

What is this? Students pick a real historical event and change it. Then they predict how the PRESENT would be different using mixed conditionals. This combines history, critical thinking, and grammar.

How to do it: Write 3 events on the board. Each pair picks one. They discuss and prepare 5 mixed conditional sentences about how the present would be different. Then present to the class.

Event 1: "The internet was never invented."

Example: "If the internet hadn't been invented, we would be reading newspapers right now." "If it hadn't existed, companies like Google wouldn't be the most powerful in the world."

Event 2: "Colombia never produced coffee."

Event 3: "Smartphones were invented in the 1980s instead of the 2000s."

Prepare (5 min). Each pair writes 5 mixed conditional sentences.

Present (12 min). Each pair presents (4 min each). Class can challenge: "But if the internet hadn't been invented, WOULD we really be reading newspapers?" Debate using conditionals.

Vote (3 min). Most creative alternate present?

■ 03:25–03:42 | SPEED DATING: MIXED REGRETS (17 min)

2 rows of chairs facing each other (or standing). Teacher gives a scenario. Students have 2 min to discuss using mixed conditionals (past cause → present result OR present cause → past result). Then one row shifts. 6 rounds.

1. "If you had chosen a different career, what would you be doing right now?"
2. "If you were more patient, what would you have done differently last week?"
3. "If you had been born 100 years earlier, what would your daily life be like?"
4. "If you weren't afraid of anything, what would you have tried by now?"
5. "If you had married the first person you dated, what would your life be like today?"
6. "If you were the president of Colombia, what would you have changed in the last year?"

> WALK AROUND writing errors. Everyone standing = more energy.

■ PORTFOLIO BUILD — DAY 5: CORRECT THE RECRUITER (15 min)

■■ Use `ANEXO_PORTFOLIO_BUILD_B2_PROFESOR.pdf` (Day 5 section). 5 scripts with intentional errors available.

Today is Day 5 of the Portfolio Build Cycle. YOU pretend to be a recruiter calling the student, with intentional errors. Students listen and correct you AT THE END.

Setup (1 min): "I will pretend to be a recruiter with intentional errors. After I finish, you correct me." Pick 1 of 5 scripts (rotate weekly):

- Script A: Phone screening
- Script B: Job offer
- Script C: Rejection
- Script D: Salary negotiation
- Script E: Reference check

The script — read aloud as the "recruiter" (5 min): Read the script slowly, naturally, with the planted errors. Don't emphasize the errors — speak as if you really were a recruiter.

Correction round (8 min): "What errors did I make? Don't say all at once. Raise hands. One at a time." Each student catches 1 error → 1 English Point. For each: student says wrong version → student says correct version → class repeats correct version 2x.

Reflection (1 min): "Which error would have been EMBARRASSING in a real interview?"

> See `ANEXO_PORTFOLIO_BUILD_B2_PROFESOR.pdf` Day 5 for the 5 scripts with errors.

■ 03:42–03:52 | SELF-CHECK (10 min)

Hand out self-check sheet. Students fill ALL fields. COLLECT. CHECK EVERY ONE: blank field = hand it back, fill it NOW. No incomplete sheets accepted. Send to coordination TODAY.

■ HOMEWORK + CLOSE (5 min)

Write on the board:

DAILY INVESTMENT (15-30 min today):

1. PROFESSIONAL GOLDLIST: 10 new business / academic phrases (idioms, connectors, STAR vocabulary).
Send a photo of your notebook to WhatsApp.
2. WATCH any recording from today (pitch / interview).
Write 3 things you'd improve.
3. CV / LinkedIn / Project: continue your work.
Coordination reviews on schedule.

Say: "Daily investment is non-negotiable for B2. The Goldlist now lives in your daily WhatsApp routine — not in our class. In class we use that time for your portfolio."
