

B2 PM AMINA — CLASS 34 — THIRD DEDICATED Tue/Thu (3 B2 + Amina only) — FULL 5-7 MIN MONOLOGUE FROM MEMORY + LIVE PEER Q&A; + AMINA AS B1 AUDIENCE CRITICAL QUESTION — IMMERSIVE 4-BLOCK MODEL

Session 34 · 2h (18:30–20:30)
Date: ____ / 06 / 2026 · Attending: ____/3

OPERATING NOTE: Third dedicated Tue/Thu since Diana 10/06 restructure (CI 32 setup REFRAME ROLE MODEL · CI 33 Phase 5 deepening + Set #25 HOLDING THE TURN · CI 34 today = closing voice + Set #26 CLOSING THE TURN). Diana 18/06: students reported old guides felt robotic — 13 short blocks, teacher pauses every 15-20 min. New model = 4 long immersive blocks, teacher coaches during student work, no format change in 45 min.

Virtue: JUSTICE v2 day 4 of 5 (block CI 31-35) — day 5 CI 35 closes the block.

Phrase of the Day: "Justice day 4 — what is owed is no longer your first word; it is your last word — the line that closes the turn cleanly so the room remembers what you said."

Countdown: ~10h to Final (CI 36 — 30/06/2026 — administered by EXTERNAL evaluator from coordinación, NOT Amina)

BLOCK MAP (120 min) — 4 IMMERSIVE BLOCKS

- | # | Min | Block | Stand? |
- | ---|---|---|---|
- | 1 | 10 | OPENER — Phrase + JUSTICE day 4 named · 4 tongue twisters · 60-sec mystery from CI 33 | mixed |
- | 2 | 50 | CONTENT — Phase 5 craft: monologue arcs + Set #26 CLOSING integrated + pair rehearsal of hook/close | mixed (sit craft → stand rehearsal) |
- | 3 | 45 | LIVE APPLICATION — FULL 5-7 min monologue from MEMORY, each of the 3, peer Q&A + Amina as B1 critical | STAND (one delivers, rest seated audience) |
- | 4 | 15 | CLOSE — Error paper recap · Phrase close · Strict 4-component homework · LIVE protocol for next united class written on board | sit + notebook |

Bring to class: Error Paper sheet · stopwatch (5-7 min monologue timing + 3-sec Q&A entry threshold) · personal notebook · the 3 students' "Why Colombia" topic full sheets · empty board space for: (a) Phrase of the Day pre-written, (b) Set #26 6 words pre-written, (c) NEXT-UNITED PROTOCOL 3 decisions written live in block 4.

EVENTS INTEGRATED (Diana 31/05 + 10/06 + 18/06 immersive model)

Third dedicated Tue/Thu. No _MARKER / _COORD_KIT files. Phrase of the Day, JUSTICE virtue day 4, Set #26 vocab, vocalization, mystery from CI 33, error paper, peer feedback — ALL integrated inside the 4 blocks. No standalone VATS block. No standalone vocab block. No standalone peer-teaching block. CI 36 Final = 30/06 = external coordinator from coordinación applies the Final — Amina is NOT proctor. Mentioned briefly in opener + close.

1. OPENER — 10 min — MIXED

Function: light the room, plant the Phrase, fire vocal cords, surface ONE CI 33 insight per student so the immersive blocks land warm. No long explanations. Tempo.

(1 min) Amina opens — sitting, calm

> "Welcome to the third Tuesday/Thursday only the three of us. Today is JUSTICE day 4 of 5 — the next one CI 35 closes the block in the united class. We are roughly ten hours from the Final on 30 June, administered by the external coordinator from coordinación — not me. Today is craft. Today is the last word."

(2 min) Phrase of the Day — STAND for the chorus

Phrase pre-written on board:

PHRASE OF THE DAY — CL 34
"Justice day 4 — what is owed is no longer your first word; it is your last word — the line that closes the turn cleanly so the room remembers what you said."

Read 2x with marked intonation (firm grounded weight on "no longer your first word" — releasing the entry obsession of CI 32-33 —, slow deliberate pace on "it is your last word" — last stretched, the close is the thing —, anchored descent on "closes the turn cleanly" — cleanly spoken flat with no decoration —, soft anchored close on "the room remembers what you said" — remembers receives the weight, the audience-outcome named). Chorus 2x. ONE student says it solo from memory. [Insertion #1] "Five sets built you to the floor and through the turn. Set #26 today is the language of LANDING. The last sentence is what the room takes home."

(3 min) Vocalization — 4 NEW tongue twisters — focus on CLOSING PROJECTION (the last syllables of a long monologue when breath fails)

1. /d/+n/ closing anchor: "Done deeds defended depend on done declarations; done declarations definitively denote dedicated, decisive, durable doing."
2. /l/ liquid landing: "Land each line lightly, leaving lasting lessons; lasting lessons linger long in lively listeners' literal logic."
3. /s/+z/ closing sibilants: "Seasoned speakers seal sentences smoothly; smooth seals sustain serious stories so subsequent silences signal sense."
4. /m/+p/ punctuation: "Pause, place, punctuate — precise pauses prompt powerful pivots; powerful pivots permit precise pronouncements promptly."

Per twister (~45 sec total, all 4): slow chorus 1x → fast chorus 1x. Tempo is short by design — these are warm-up for blocks 2 + 3, not the centerpiece. Done, leaving, seal, punctuate are exactly the verbs that COLLAPSE in the last 15 sec of a 7-min monologue. Train the closing consonants cold so the LAST SENTENCE lands sharp at minute 7, not soft.

(2 min) 60-sec mystery from CI 33 — SIT — each in turn (~20 sec × 3)

> "Last dedicated session you each delivered the full 5-7 min monologue from memory for the first time in this room. Quick — no processing — each of you: ONE Set #25 word you ACTUALLY used in the united class since CI 33 + ONE moment you wanted to use one and didn't. That's it. 20 seconds each. I listen, I do not coach."

Internal notebook: 3 USED + 3 DIDN'T → feeds into block 2 craft work and block 3 critical question. No coaching here. No reframe. Pure intake.

(2 min) Bridge to block 2

> "Today is the third dedicated session and the structure is different. Four long blocks instead of thirteen short ones. I will not interrupt every fifteen minutes to change format — you'll feel the work breathe. Block 2 next: fifty minutes of craft on the monologue close, with Set #26 integrated. Block 3 after: each of you delivers the full 5-7 min from memory, peer Q&A, and I sit in audience as a B1 with ONE critical question per monologue. Block 4 closes with the next-united protocol written live. Stand up — block 2 begins."

2. CONTENT OF THE DAY — PHASE 5 CRAFT: MONOLOGUE ARCS + SET #26 CLOSING INTEGRATED + PAIR REHEARSAL — 50 min — MIXED

Function: the entire block is ONE arc — micro-talk on monologue ARCHITECTURE → individual craft on the HOOK + CLOSE of each student's Why Colombia → Set #26 introduced AS the language of landing, not as a separate vocab block → pair rehearsal of the 20-sec hook + 15-sec close until each one is OWNED. Amina coaches inside the work, not from the front. 50 min, no format change.

Stage A — Micro-craft talk: monologue ARCS (~8 min) — STAND at board Amina at the board, the 3 standing in a semicircle. No notebooks open yet — listening, not transcribing.

> "A 5-7 minute monologue is not five-to-seven minutes of content. It is three load-bearing structures: the HOOK is twenty seconds, the THREE PILLARS are one minute each — give or take — and the CLOSE is fifteen seconds. The audience remembers two things: the first twenty seconds and the last fifteen. The middle is what they trust IF the first and last hold. So: 35 seconds of the 7 minutes carry 80% of the load. Today we sharpen the 20 + the 15."

Draw on board (live, three lines):

MONOLOGUE ARC — 5 to 7 MIN

[HOOK 20 sec] → [3 PILLARS, ~1 min each] → [CLOSE 15 sec] surprise anchor + example + bridge LAND + signal end anti-cliché (anchor / example / bridge) (Set #26 verb) one image (CTA or echo of hook)

> "The HOOK is not your thesis. The hook is the image or surprise that makes the room WANT the thesis. Last dedicated session block 7, two of you opened with a thesis statement — the room respected it but did not LEAN IN. The hook makes the room lean in. The CLOSE is not 'thank you for listening.' The close is the sentence the room will quote back. If you can say at minute 7 something the room CAN quote, you closed the turn cleanly. That is justice day 4. That is the last word."

> "Set #26 is six words today — all of them verbs for LANDING. Sets #22 #23 #24 #25 got you to the floor, kept you on it, and made what came out sharp. Set #26 is HOW you leave the turn. Not 'I think that's it,' not 'um yeah,' not a fade. A clean LAND."

Show Set #26 on board — pre-written, revealed now:

ACADEMIC B2 SET #26 (CL 34) – CLOSING THE TURN CLEANLY
 Use these as the final 15 sec verb of a turn – monologue close,
 Q&A; answer close, or united-class build close.
 Cumulative total: 156 words.

1. LAND /lænd/ – aterrizar el punto con peso "Let me land this: the daily-life layer is the only one that survives the translation."

2. WRAP /ræp/ – cerrar limpio sin colgar "To wrap – three pillars, one frame: Colombia is asked the wrong question."

3. SEAL /siːl/ – sellar con autoridad la conclusión
 "Let me seal the point: if you keep the frame, the answer keeps itself."

4. HAND OFF /hænd ɒf/ – pasar la palabra con intención
 "I'll hand off here – what's the part you'd push on?"

5. YIELD /jiːld/ – ceder el turno cuando ya cerraste
 "I'll yield – I've made the case; the floor is open."

6. PUNCTUATE /ˈpʌŋktʃu.eɪt/ – poner el énfasis final que se recuerda "Let me punctuate: not 'a place to visit' – a place to be asked the right question about."

Per word: pronounce 2x → cohort 2x → definition + example named. ~50 sec each = ~5 min embedded inside this stage. Not a separate block — the words ARE the craft material for stages B + C below. Don't drill in isolation here — drill them inside the closes you're about to write.

[Insertion #2] "What is owed is the last word — these six verbs ARE the last words. Pick one. Own it. Use it in your close in the next ten minutes."

Stage B — Individual craft: rewrite YOUR opening 20 sec + closing 15 sec using Set #26 (~17 min) — SIT, notebook open, Amina circulates

> "Sit. Notebook open. You each have your Why Colombia full topic sheet — pull it out. Seventeen minutes. By the end, you have rewritten — by hand, in your notebook — the OPENING 20 seconds and the CLOSING 15 seconds of your monologue. The CLOSE must anchor in ONE Set #26 verb of your choice. The HOOK must be an image or surprise, not a thesis. I circulate. I coach in whispers, one-on-one, not from the front. The room stays quiet — this is the craft room, not the rehearsal room yet."

Amina circulates continuously. For each student, ~5-6 min of one-on-one coaching across the 17 min. Coaching moves (use 2-3 of these per student depending on what she actually wrote):

- "Read me your hook. Stop. Is that an image, or is that a thesis? If thesis, what's the image underneath it?"
- "Your close ends on 'thank you' — strip it. What's the Set #26 verb? LAND or PUNCTUATE? Land if you want the room to settle. Punctuate if you want the room to remember a contrast."
- "Your close currently mirrors your hook — good, but the mirror is fuzzy. Sharpen the echo: take the strongest noun from your hook and place it as the last word of your close."
- "Set #26 SEAL fits because your topic argues a frame. SEAL says 'this frame closes.' Try it: 'Let me seal — if you keep the frame...'"
- "You wrote 'in conclusion' — that's the rehearsed shape. Set #26 WRAP or LAND replaces it. WRAP if you want collegial. LAND if you want decisive."

Internal notebook (during circulation): for each student, note WHICH Set #26 verb she chose + ONE sentence about how her HOOK still drifts (if it does) — feed into Stage C.

[Insertion #3] (whispered to whichever student is currently struggling): "Justice day 4 — what is owed is no longer your first word; it is your last word. The first word can be rewritten CI 35. The last word is what we sharpen today."

Stage C — Pair rehearsal of the hook + close (~22 min) — STAND, rotating pairs

> "Stand up. Pair up. You will rehearse ONLY the 20-second hook + 15-second close — not the full monologue, not the pillars — just the two load-bearing pieces. Three times each per pair. Partner feedback after every delivery: ONE question, two checks. ONE: did the close LAND? Yes or no. Did you hear the Set #26 verb? Yes or no. We rotate pairs every seven minutes so each of you rehearses with each of the other two and once with me."

Rotation (~22 min = 3 rotations of ~7 min):

- Rotation 1 (7 min) — Pair AB, Amina pairs with student C. Student A delivers hook + close 3x to B; B feedback (LAND y/n + Set #26 verb heard y/n + ONE specific image suggestion). Reverse: B delivers 3x to A. Meanwhile Amina works one-on-one with C: same protocol, but Amina names the Set #26 verb she SHOULD be hearing and isn't.
- Rotation 2 (7 min) — Pair AC, Amina with B. Same protocol. Each delivers 3x. A new pair, fresh feedback — the second pair catches what the first missed.
- Rotation 3 (8 min) — Pair BC, Amina with A. Same protocol. Each delivers 3x. By end of rotation 3, each student has rehearsed the hook + close 9 times total (3 per rotation × 3 rotations) and received feedback from both peers + Amina.

Strict rule for the partner feedback: the partner says LITERALLY: "Did the close LAND? Y/N. Did you hear the Set #26 verb? Y/N. The verb was ____." No nice-feedback. No "good job." Binary signal + the name of the verb. If she didn't hear the verb, she names what she heard instead — and the speaker drills the close one more time before moving on.

[Insertion #4] (Amina during one of the rotations, to the whole room): "Last word. The room remembers the last word. Drill it like the first time you'll say it is in front of an external evaluator who has never heard you before. Because that is exactly what CI 36 is."

Close stage C (~30 sec, all standing): "You each rehearsed the hook + close nine times. Block 3 next — full monologue, 5-7 minutes from memory, hook and close that you just sharpened sitting inside the whole talk. No notes. No paper. Stand where you are. Block 3 begins as soon as I draw order."

3. LIVE APPLICATION — FULL 5-7 MIN MONOLOGUE FROM MEMORY · PEER Q&A; · AMINA AS B1 CRITICAL — 45 min — STAND

Function: ONE activity, 45 minutes, no format change. Each of the 3 students delivers the FULL 5-7 min Why Colombia monologue from memory, no notes, standing in front of the other two and Amina. After each monologue: peer Q&A (2 questions from peers as B1 audience), then Amina as B1 audience with ONE critical question. Total per student ~14-15 min = (5-7 monologue) + (1 min silence/setup of Q&A) + (2 peer questions × ~80 sec) + (1 Amina critical Q&A × ~80 sec) + (30 sec recovery / transition). 3 students × 14-15 min = ~43 min + 2-3 min closing reflection.

This is the heart of the class. The teacher does NOT change the format inside the 45 min. The students internalize one rhythm — DELIVER → SILENCE → Q&A → RECOVER — three times. The repetition under audience pressure is the work.

(3 min) Setup

Amina at the front. The other 2 students seated, notebooks open for Q&A note-taking.

> "Three monologues. Each of you delivers the full 5-7 minutes from memory. No notes. No paper. The hook and close you sharpened in block 2 sit inside the full talk — you keep them. After each monologue: silence three seconds. Then the two peers ask one question each — your job as audience is to ask AS A B1 — non-expert framing, real curiosity, not a B2 trap. Then I — sitting in audience — ask ONE critical question of YOU as a B1 might frame it if she did NOT understand. Recovery: thirty seconds, water, sit. Next student up."

> "I do not stop you mid-monologue. If you blank, you recover and continue — that recovery is exactly what the external evaluator CI 36 will read. No notes is anti-fraud — the talk is yours."

Draw order (~30 sec — student names random). Confirm: stopwatch on, ~7 min cap per monologue.

(~14 min) Student 1 — full delivery + 3-question Q&A;

Monologue (5-7 min): Student 1 stands at front. Amina starts stopwatch. The other 2 take notes for their Q&A questions. Amina notes (internal):

- Did the HOOK do its job (image, not thesis)?
- Did Set #26 verb LAND the close?
- Where did "um" / "well" / "I think probably" colonize?
- Memory failure points: where did she blank? How did she recover?
- Time: 5-7 ideal, ~3-4 = under-prepared, ~8+ = rambling.

Stopwatch off at end. 3-sec silence — Amina holds it intentionally. The silence is the first signal that the close LANDED or didn't.

Peer Q&A (~3 min, 2 questions × ~80 sec each):

- Peer 1 asks a B1-frame question (real curiosity, non-expert). Student 1 answers in ~80 sec — Amina watches for: did she use a Set #25 verb (clarify / specify / contextualize) to bridge to B1 register? Did she close her answer with a Set #26 verb (LAND or WRAP) or did she fade?
- Peer 2 asks a B1-frame question. Same protocol.

Amina critical Q&A (~80 sec): Amina as B1 audience asks ONE critical question — phrased as a real B1 might (slight confusion + push for a reason). Example shapes (pick the one that fits Student 1's actual topic):

- "I'm B1, I'm honest, I didn't fully get pillar 2 — can you say that part again but for someone who's never been to Colombia? Use one of those Set #25 words."
- "I'm a B1 from the united class — you said 'Colombia is asked the wrong question' — what IS the right question, in one sentence I can use tomorrow with a foreigner?"
- "I'm B1, I'm not convinced — your hook was strong, your close was strong, but the middle felt rehearsed. Which pillar do YOU think is your weakest, honestly? And how would you re-anchor it right now?"

Student 1 answers in ~80 sec. Amina watches for: did she SHAPE-FIT the answer (justice day 3 holding into day 4)? Did she LAND the answer with a Set #26 verb? Did she collapse / fluff / defend?

(~30 sec recovery) Student 1 sits. Water. Brief silence. Amina internal note: ONE specific gap, ONE specific win.

(~14 min) Student 2 — same protocol

Stopwatch reset. Stand. Full monologue 5-7 min from memory. 3-sec silence. 2 peer Q&A. 1 Amina B1-critical. 30-sec recovery.

Amina watches with FRESH eyes — what worked for Student 1's hook may not work for Student 2's topic. The critical question for Student 2 is DIFFERENT from Student 1's — Amina prepares the 3 critical questions ahead (one per student, anchored in each topic) but adapts in the moment if the monologue revealed a different gap than expected.

(~14 min) Student 3 — same protocol

Stopwatch reset. Stand. Full monologue 5-7 min from memory. 3-sec silence. 2 peer Q&A. 1 Amina B1-critical. 30-sec recovery.

Same discipline. Same intensity. By the third monologue, the cohort has SEEN the rhythm twice — Student 3 delivers into a room that already knows the protocol, which means the room can listen MORE carefully. The peer questions for Student 3 should be SHARPER than for Student 1 — Amina notes if they are; if soft, she names it during the critical Q&A: "Peer questions softened across the three — what did you skip asking? Bring it now."

(~3 min) Closing reflection — STAND, semicircle

> Three full monologues from memory. First time in this room all three of you did it back-to-back. Each in ONE sentence: what LANDED cleanest in YOUR monologue today + what needs more reps before CI 36.*

3 × ~30 sec. No coaching here. Pure self-report. Amina internal notebook: who NAMED a real gap vs who substituted a comfortable gap (the fake-gap pattern from CI 33 Round 3). If anyone substitutes, Amina names it in block 4 close — not now.

Brief silence (~10 sec). "Sit. Block 4 closes the class."

4. CLOSE — ERROR PAPER · PHRASE CLOSE · STRICT HOMEWORK · NEXT-UNITED PROTOCOL LIVE — 15 min — SIT + NOTEBOOK

Function: consolidate the 95 minutes that just happened, recap the 3 most-common errors of the day (anonymous on board, named in personal notebook), have the cohort SAY the Phrase one last time + paraphrase, hand the 4-component homework, and write the 3-decision protocol for the next united class on the board live.

(4 min) Error paper recap — ERROR PAPER SHEET ON DESK, ANONYMOUS

Amina reads the 3 most-common errors of the day from her internal notebook (NAMES in her notebook only, anonymous on the physical Error Paper sheet):

CI 34 LIVE ERRORS – anonymous read

1. ■ Block 3 monologue: "I closed with 'thank you' instead of the Set #26 verb I rehearsed in block 2."
→ ■ The close IS the Set #26 verb. "Let me LAND this:..."
"To WRAP:..." "Let me PUNCTUATE:..." The room remembers the last verb, not the thank-you. Justice day 4.
2. ■ Block 3 Amina critical Q&A: "I shape-drifted to a rehearsed paragraph instead of answering the B1's actual question."
→ ■ Justice day 3 holds into day 4. SHAPE-FIT.
Set #25 clarify or specify to enter the answer,
Set #26 LAND or WRAP to close it. Two verbs, one answer.
3. ■ Block 3 peer Q&A; as listener: "I asked a soft B2 question instead of a real B1-frame question that pushed her."
→ ■ B1 frame = real curiosity + non-expert phrasing.
Not a trap, not a softball – the question a B1 from the united class would actually ask. That IS the role-model rehearsal.

Cohort reads silently (~30 sec). Amina names the error each student personally hit (in her notebook), but DOES NOT name students publicly. Each student knows which one is hers because she lived it ~20 min ago. [Insertion #5] "Justice day 4 — what is owed is the last word. The last word is what these three errors steal. Tonight's homework rebuilds it."

(3 min) Phrase close + paraphrase

1. (~60 sec) ONE student says the Phrase from memory WITH intonation.
2. (~60 sec) ANOTHER student paraphrases the Phrase in her own words for the next united class B1 audience (target shape: "What you say last is what the room takes home — make sure it's the line you actually meant." — accept any honest paraphrase that holds the last word idea).
3. (~60 sec) THIRD student names: "The Set #26 verb I commit to using FIRST in the next united class is ____." Confirm — process, no grade.

(4 min) Strict homework — 4 components, 45-60 min total, NOT fragmented

HOMEWORK – DUE: BEFORE THE NEXT UNITED CLASS, 6:00 PM
TOTAL TIME: 45-60 min – NOT fragmented.

(1) WRITING (in own notebook, by hand – anti-fraud):
FINAL DRAFT of the OPENING 20 sec + CLOSING 15 sec of your Why Colombia monologue, using the Set #26 verb you chose in block 2. Not a draft – the final version you will deliver Cl 36. Bring the page to the next united class. Amina photographs for archive.
(10-12 min total).

(2) AUDIO EYES CLOSED (~3 min):
Deliver the FULL Why Colombia monologue from memory, 5-7 min, no paper, hook + 3 pillars + close that you rewrote today. Eyes closed for the close (last 15 sec) so the Set #26 verb LANDS without visual support.
- Label: B2-AMINA-CL34-FULL-V10-FROMMEMORY
(15-18 min total – 1 take, prep + delivery + replay).

(3) LISTENING (10 min):
Find a B2-level talk (TED, podcast, lecture – your choice of topic, in English). Note 5 anchor MOVES the speaker uses from Sets #21-#26:
- 1 BRIDGE move (Set #22: clarify / address / acknowledge / qualify / elaborate / reframe)
- 1 HOLD move (Set #23: contend / maintain / posit / assert / reaffirm / hold)
- 1 ENTRY move (Set #24: jump in / build on / offer / chime in / step up / weigh in)
- 1 PRECISION move (Set #25: elaborate / clarify / qualify / nuance / specify / contextualize)
- 1 CLOSING move (Set #26: land / wrap / seal / hand off / yield / punctuate)
Write each move + the literal sentence the speaker said
+ timestamp. 5 lines total.
(10-12 min total).

(4) UNITED CLASS PREP – pick ONE PHRASE from today (your Phrase of the Day OR the Set #26 verb you committed to in the phrase-close paraphrase) and use it as the FIRST B2 contribution in the next united class. Verbatim. Write it in your notebook so you don't think – you just deliver.
(5 min total – preparation, mental rehearsal).

EXPLICIT: today's session was the THIRD dedicated Tue/Thu.
Component 3 LISTENING is the new component – until today we drilled production; today we add reception. Listening to how a B2-level speaker MOVES through the 5 sets trains your ear to catch the moves in the united class when a B1 makes half-moves you can build on. Cl 36 Final = 30/06 = external coordinator from coordinación applies. NO FRAGMENTATION.

(4 min) NEXT-UNITED PROTOCOL — 3 decisions written live on the board — 5 min written + photographed

> Five minutes. Three decisions. Notebook open. You decide; I write on the board; we photograph.

Write on board the THREE decisions header:

NEXT UNITED CLASS – PROTOCOL (Cl 34 decisions)
Date next united: ____/06/2026

Decision 1 (~90 sec) — Who closes the next united class with a 2-min talk?

The 3 students DECIDE among themselves (criterion suggestion: whoever closed LEAST recently OR whoever has the most need for audience-real reps). Amina facilitates if stuck.

PRESENTER NEXT UNITED: _____
PART OF TALK (which 2 min of the full 5-7): _____

Decision 2 (~90 sec) — The 3 Set #26 closing phrases the cohort commits to using (1 per student, all DIFFERENT)

Each student picks ONE Set #26 verb she will use to LAND her first contribution in the next united class. Different from the other two so the room hears variety.

STUDENT 1 closing verb (Set #26): _____
STUDENT 2 closing verb (Set #26): _____
STUDENT 3 closing verb (Set #26): _____

(Examples: "Let me LAND this — three pillars, one frame." / "To WRAP — Colombia is asked the wrong question." / "Let me PUNCTUATE — not a place to visit, a place to be asked about." — DIFFERENT for each so the B1 audience hears three different LANDINGS.)

Decision 3 (~90 sec) — The opening topic Amina will throw

> "I tell you the opening prompt for the next united class NOW so you pre-load your Set #24 entry + your Set #26 close."

Amina names ONE prompt (suggested options — pick adapted to current B1 unit):

- "I'll open with: 'who has an example of a sentence you've said in Spanish that closed a conversation BEAUTIFULLY — and you wish you knew how to close one like that in English?'"
- OR "I'll open with: 'who has an example of a Colombian phrase that says everything in the LAST word — and English needs three sentences for the same?'"
- OR "I'll open with: 'who has an example of an ending — a movie, a story, a real moment — that landed because of ONE specific word?'"

(Pick ONE — write on the board.)

NEXT UNITED OPENING PROMPT (Amina): _____
B2 entry phrase READY — first 3 sec. B2 close phrase READY — Set #26 verb.

Close (~30 sec): "Three decisions on the board. Photographed. Justice day 4 — what is owed is the last word. CI 35 day 5 closes the JUSTICE block in the united class. CI 36 = 30 June = external coordinator from coordinación applies the Final. Ten hours of class away. Tonight: writing + audio + listening + one phrase you carry. The Phrase still holds — what is owed is no longer your first word; it is your last word — the line that closes the turn cleanly so the room remembers what you said. We end here."

(Amina photographs the board for coordination archive.)

NOTAS INTERNAS (no leer en clase)

- Mapa restante: CI 34 hoy (3ra Ma/Ju exclusiva) + CI 35 (Vi unida — JUSTICIA día 5 cierre + ensayo Final) + CI 36 30/06 = Final aplicado por evaluador externo de coordinación. CI 36 NO se genera guía Amina. Tras hoy no quedan exclusivas más; CI 35 ya es unida.
- Virtud JUSTICIA v2 (CI 31-35) — arco: día 1 "give each question what it's owed" → día 2 "voice not silence" → día 3 "shape not safer" → día 4 HOY "give the room your LAST word" → día 5 CI 35 "carry all four into the united class as one practice." CI 36 abre FORTALEZA v2 día 1 pero sin guía Amina.
- 3ra estudiante: nombre pendiente confirmar Diana (Margie A. Acevedo o Angie L. López Capacho — no inventar). Guía reutilizable: NO nombres en cuerpo.
- Set #26 CLOSING THE TURN CLEANLY: LAND / WRAP / SEAL / HAND OFF / YIELD / PUNCTUATE. Acumulado 156. Descartado HANDLING DISAGREEMENT — duplicaba Set #23 + #25. ANCHOR ya estaba en Set #22, no se reutiliza. Sistema completo a 10h del Final: #22 bridge → #23 hold → #24 take floor → #25 precision mid-turn → #26 close turn.
- Modelo inmersivo (Diana 18/06): 4 bloques largos, no 13 cortos. CI 32+33 fueron ~700 líneas robóticas. CI 34 ejecuta el cambio: TODO integrado (VATS, vocab, vocalización, mystery, peer feedback, error paper) dentro de los 4 bloques. Si Amina siente urgencia de partir un bloque a la mitad, ese ES el reflejo viejo.
- Phase 5 ejecución pura bloque 3: 3 monologues back-to-back de memoria, ~45 min inmersivos sin cambio de formato. Si alguien no llega (undershoot <4 min, blank sin recuperar, notas escondidas), libreta personal + nombre. CI 35 unida esa estudiante recibe peer-pressure role-model frente a B1 — drill targeted, NO anunciar evaluación.
- CI 36 Final = evaluador externo de coordinación, NO Amina: mencionado opener + bloque 3 setup + cierre bloque 4. Memoria feedback_examen_final_otro_evaluador.
- Amina como B1 en bloque 3: UNA pregunta crítica por monologue. NO es "guest" (feedback_simulacion_guest_observer_pattern excluye guest); es role-modeling de B1-listener crítico, frame meta-pedagógico mantenido. Amina vuelve a profesora-coach inmediatamente.
- Tarea componente 3 LISTENING — NUEVO: hasta CI 33 los 4 componentes eran 100% producción. Hoy se añade recepción (charla B2 + 5 movimientos Sets #21-26 con timestamp). Razón: 10h al Final, las estudiantes han producido mucho pero escuchado poco B2 fuera de Amina. Entrenar oído para BUILD ON en clase unida cuando un B1 hace medio-move.
- Supuesto (verificar Diana): countdown ~10h al Final = tiempo total de clase restante antes CI 36 (CI 34 + CI 35 + ~3 unidas). Si Diana cuenta solo exclusivas, el resto es 0h exclusivas + ~6-8h unidas. Mantener "~10h" hasta feedback.

- Frase del Día insertions: 5 marcadas (#1 opener bridge, #2 Set #26 reveal, #3 stage B whisper, #4 block 3 rotation, #5 error paper recap) + cita verbatim en cierre bloque 4 = 6 toques operativos sin contar chorus del opener.

- Eventos INTEGRADOS (Diana 31/05 + 10/06 + 18/06): sin _MARKER. Sin GoldList (retirado 14/05). Solo Frase del Día. Set #26 = vocab cumulativo.
