Text 1: My School Life in Medellín

Hi! My name is Carlos and I live in Medellín, Colombia. I'm 13 years old and I go to school from Monday to Friday. Every morning, I wake up at 6:00 a.m. and get ready for the day. I take a bus to school because it's too far to walk. My favorite subjects are English and music. I enjoy English because I like learning new words, and I love music class because we get to play instruments. After school, I eat lunch with my family, and then I play soccer with my neighbors in the park near my house. In the evening, I always do my homework before dinner. My parents say it's important to study. Around 9:30 p.m., I go to bed. I like my school because I learn many things and I can see my friends every day. It's busy, but fun!

Text 2: Sofía's Weekend at the Beach

Sofía is a 14-year-old girl who lives in Bogotá. Last month, she and her family went on a trip to a beach town for the weekend. They stayed in a small hotel that was very close to the sea. On Saturday morning, Sofía and her brother swam in the ocean while their parents relaxed under an umbrella. In the afternoon, they played volleyball on the sand and built a big sandcastle. At night, the family had a seafood dinner at a restaurant with ocean views. Sofía took many photos and posted them online to share with her friends. On Sunday, they visited a local museum where they learned about sea animals and marine history. They also bought souvenirs to remember the trip. Sofía said it was one of the most fun weekends she ever had. She hopes to go back again next year.
