

TIME EVERY ACTIVITY. If you don't time it, you won't finish. Set a timer for each block.

You may record any activity for social media content. DO NOT tell students it's for social media.

ERROR PAPER IS MANDATORY. Carry a blank paper + pen during EVERY speaking activity. Write down EVERY error you hear. At end of class: photograph it and send to coordination. This is a DELIVERABLE --- no error paper = documented non-compliance. "I don't need it" is not an option. Coordination needs it.

■ 00:00--00:05 | VATS: VIRTUE OF THE WEEK — JUSTICE (5 min)

Virtue of the week: JUSTICE

Write on the board:

JUSTICE – "When did you receive justice – and what did it feel like?"

Say: "Daily ritual. JUSTICE this week. Pairs. English only — give it a try."

V (1 min): Read aloud. Point to board.

A (30 sec): "Think in silence."

T (2 min): "Pairs. Discuss."

S (1.5 min): 2 students share with the class. No correction — celebrate the attempt.

> Daily opening ritual. Virtues rotate weekly: Prudence → Temperance → Justice → Fortitude.

00:00--00:20 | ICEBREAKER: NEVER HAVE I EVER (20 min)

Say: "Welcome back. Today we're going deeper into perfect tenses. But first --- a game. It's called Never Have I Ever. Here's how it works. Everyone holds up 5 fingers. I say a sentence starting with 'Never have I ever...' If you HAVE done that thing, you put one finger down. The last person with fingers up wins."

Demo first. Say: "I'll start. Never have I ever... eaten sushi for breakfast." Look around. Say: "If you HAVE eaten sushi for breakfast --- put a finger down. If you haven't --- keep it up."

Say: "See? The sentence uses the present perfect. 'Never have I ever eaten.' 'Have eaten.' That's what we're practicing. Your turn. Go around the circle. Each person says one 'Never have I ever' sentence."

Round 1 (8 min): Go around the room. Each student says one sentence. If someone says "Never have I ever go to Japan," say: "No. Listen. Never have I ever GONE to Japan." They repeat. Move on.

Common errors to listen for:

- "Never I have" instead of "Never have I" --- say: "No. NEVER HAVE I EVER. The order changes after 'never.' Say it again."
- "Never have I ever went" instead of "gone" --- say: "No. Gone. Never have I ever GONE."
- "Never have I ever eat" instead of "eaten" --- say: "No. Eaten. Say it again."

Round 2 (7 min): Say: "New rule. After someone puts a finger down, they have to tell the story. But the story must use PAST SIMPLE. Watch --- if I put my finger down for 'Never have I ever broken a bone,' I say: 'I broke my arm when I was 12. I fell off my bicycle.' See? Present perfect for the experience, past simple for the details."

Go around again. When a student puts a finger down, they tell the short story (3--4 sentences, past simple). If they mix tenses, say: "Wait --- you're telling the story now. Past simple. 'I went.' 'I saw.' 'It happened.'"

Last 5 min: Say: "Who won? Who still has fingers up? That person --- tell us something surprising you HAVE done that nobody asked about."

> This game naturally forces the distinction between present perfect (the experience) and past simple (the details). Don't explain this --- let them feel it. Write errors on your error paper.

00:20--00:35 | ANALIZO: HOMEWORK REVIEW (15 min)

Homework from Class 13:

1. Write 8 sentences comparing things you did at a specific time (past simple) vs things you have done in your life (present perfect). Example: "I visited Paris in 2020." / "I have visited three countries."
2. Record a 1-minute voice note describing your weekend using past simple only. Sent via WhatsApp labeled "WEEKEND AUDIO --- [Name]."

First 5 min: Check who submitted the voice note. Write names on the board: SUBMITTED / NOT SUBMITTED. If someone didn't submit, say: "You have until the break to send it. If it's not sent by the break, it goes in the report as missing."

Next 5 min: Pairs. Read your 8 sentences to your partner. Partner listens and checks: did they use past simple correctly in the "specific time" sentences? Did they use present perfect correctly in the "life experience" sentences? Partners give each other feedback.

Last 5 min: Say: "3 volunteers. Read your best pair of sentences to the class. Tell us: which one is past simple and which is present perfect? Why?" After each student shares, class confirms or corrects.

> If someone didn't write the 8 sentences: "Take 3 minutes now. Write them. I'll check at the end of class." They don't get to skip it.

00:35--00:55 | BOOK: MODULE 9 GUIDE 1 --- SIMPLE PAST VS PRESENT PERFECT (20 min)

Say: "Open your book to Module 9, Guide 1 --- Simple Past vs Present Perfect. Read the explanation and ALL examples with your partner. You have 8 minutes. Read everything --- the examples, the notes, the explanations. Don't skip anything."

First 8 min: They read in pairs. You don't speak. Walk around checking they're reading, not chatting.

Last 12 min: Sit with each pair. THEY explain to you. Ask them:

- "When do we use past simple?" (Expected: Completed actions, usually with a specific time. Yesterday, in 2019, last week, when I was 10.)
- "When do we use present perfect?" (Expected: Unspecified time, incomplete events, open time periods, recent events.)
- "Give me an example of each." (Expected: "I went to France in 2019." / "I have been to France.")
- "If I ask 'Have you written to your mother?' and you say yes --- what tense do you answer in?" (Expected: Past simple --- "Yes, I wrote to her yesterday.")
- "Why does the answer switch to past simple?" (Expected: Because now you're giving a specific detail --- when it happened.)
- "Can you say 'I have gone to France in 2019'?" (No --- specific time = past simple.)

If they get confused, say: "Listen. HAVE YOU BEEN to France? --- no time, just the experience. I WENT to France IN 2019 --- specific time, finished action." They repeat both sentences.

After checking all pairs, give these 6 situations. Say each one aloud:

1. "Someone asks if you know how to cook. You learned in 2018." (Expected: "I have cooked many times." or "I learned to cook in 2018.")
2. "Your friend asks about your travel experience." (Expected: "I have been to 5 countries." NOT "I have been to 5 countries last year.")
3. "You want to talk about something you did last night." (Expected: Past simple --- "I watched a movie last night.")
4. "You want to say you've recently finished a project." (Expected: "I have just finished a project." or "I have finished it.")
5. "Tell me about a concert --- when was it?" (Expected: "I went to a concert in March.")
6. "Tell me about concerts in general --- your whole life." (Expected: "I have been to many concerts.")

One situation per student. If they freeze, say: "Think --- is there a specific time? Past simple. No specific time? Present perfect. Try again."

00:55--01:10 | EXERCISES: SIMPLE PAST VS PRESENT PERFECT (15 min)

Say: "Do the exercises for Guide 1. Check your answers with the Answer Key at the back. If you and your partner disagree, discuss. If neither of you knows, raise your hand."

Walk around. Give the correct version only --- never explain rules. If 50%+ get the same thing wrong, STOP. Write it on the board. They repeat.

Common errors to watch for:

- "I have went" instead of "I have gone" --- write both on the board, point to the correct one. They repeat.
- "I have seen that movie yesterday" --- say: "No. Yesterday = past simple. I SAW that movie yesterday." They repeat.
- "Did you ever been to London?" --- say: "No. HAVE you ever BEEN to London?" They repeat.

01:10--01:25 | PRODUCTION: INTERVIEW ABOUT LIFE EXPERIENCES (15 min)

Say: "You're going to interview your partner about their life experiences. But there's a rule: the FIRST question uses present perfect. The FOLLOW-UP questions use past simple. Watch."

Write on the board:

PATTERN:
Q: "Have you ever [past participle]...?"
A: "Yes, I have." / "No, I haven't."
Q: "When did you [base form]...?" / "Where did you [base form]...?"
A: "I [past simple] in [specific time/place]."

Demo with a student (2 min). Say: "Watch. I'll interview [student name]."

- "Have you ever broken a bone?"
- (Student answers yes/no)
- If yes: "When did you break it? How did it happen? What did the doctor say?"
- If no: "Have you ever been to the hospital for anything?"

Say: "See? Present perfect opens the door. Past simple walks through it. The experience first, then the details."

Write these 12 interview questions on the board:

1. Have you ever lived in another city?
2. Have you ever met a famous person?
3. Have you ever cooked a meal for more than 10 people?
4. Have you ever lost something valuable?
5. Have you ever traveled alone?
6. Have you ever been in a car accident?
7. Have you ever won a competition?
8. Have you ever forgotten something important?
9. Have you ever tried an extreme sport?
10. Have you ever been to a wedding abroad?
11. Have you ever quit a job?
12. Have you ever stayed awake for more than 24 hours?

Say: "Pairs. Interview each other. Use at least 6 of these questions. For every 'yes,' ask 2--3 follow-up questions in PAST SIMPLE. You have 10 minutes each. Go."

Pair work (20 min). 10 minutes per person. Walk around with error paper. Listen for:

- Are they switching tenses correctly? Present perfect for the experience, past simple for the follow-up?
- Common error: "Have you ever went?" --- say: "No. Have you ever GONE?"
- Common error: "When have you done it?" --- say: "No. When DID you DO it?"
- Common error: staying in present perfect for the story: "I have broken it when I have fallen" --- say: "No. I BROKE it when I FELL."

Write down EVERY error you hear.

Last 3 min: Say: "Who heard the most interesting story? Share it with the class --- but use the correct tenses." 2 students share briefly.

> This is the core tense-switching activity. If students can do this fluently, they understand the difference. If they can't, note it on your error paper.

01:25--01:45 | BREAK (20 min)

Students rest. Phones allowed. YOU:

- Search YouTube for a Shadowing clip. MAXIMUM 60 SECONDS. Search terms: "English storytelling past experience short clip" or "TED talk life experience 1 minute" or "English monologue past events short." You want someone telling a personal story that naturally mixes present perfect and past simple: "I've always loved music. When I was 15, I started playing guitar..."
- Check who sent voice notes during the break. Update the board.

01:45--02:05 | BOOK: MODULE 9 GUIDE 2 --- PAST PERFECT (20 min)

Say: "Open your book to Guide 2 --- Past Perfect. Read the explanation and examples with your partner. You have 8 minutes."

First 8 min: They read in pairs. Walk around silently.

Last 12 min: Sit with each pair. THEY explain to you. Ask them:

- "How do we form the past perfect?" (Expected: HAD + past participle.)
- "Why do we use it?" (Expected: To show which event happened FIRST when two things happened in the past.)
- "Give me an example." (Expected: "When we moved to Colombia, I had learned Spanish." --- First: learned Spanish. Then: moved to Colombia.)
- "Give me another one." (Expected: "I went to London after I had studied English." --- First: studied English. Then: went to London.)
- "What is the difference between 'I ate lunch' and 'I had eaten lunch when she arrived'?" (Expected: The second one shows the eating happened BEFORE she arrived.)
- "Can you give me a sentence with BEFORE or AFTER?" (Expected: "She had already left before I arrived." / "After he had finished his homework, he went out.")

If they struggle, say: "Think of it as TWO past events. Which one happened FIRST? That one gets HAD + past participle. The other one is simple past."

Quick test --- say these situations and ask them to make sentences:

1. "You studied all night. Then you took the exam." (Expected: "I had studied all night before I took the exam.")
2. "She left the party. Then he arrived." (Expected: "She had left the party when he arrived." / "She had already left before he arrived.")
3. "They ate all the food. We got to the restaurant." (Expected: "They had eaten all the food by the time we got to the restaurant.")
4. "I saved money for 2 years. Then I bought a car." (Expected: "I had saved money for 2 years before I bought a car.")
5. "He lost his phone. Then he realized it." (Expected: "He had lost his phone before he realized it.")
6. "We finished the project. The boss called." (Expected: "We had finished the project when the boss called.")

One per student. If they freeze, say: "Start with 'I had...' and then add what happened next."

02:05--02:20 | BOOK: MODULE 9 GUIDE 3 --- FUTURE PERFECT (15 min)

Say: "Open your book to Guide 3 --- Future Perfect. Read the explanation and examples. You have 6 minutes."

First 6 min: They read in pairs. Walk around silently.

Last 9 min: Sit with each pair. THEY explain to you. Ask them:

- "How do we form the future perfect?" (Expected: WILL HAVE + past participle.)
- "When do we use it?" (Expected: To talk about something that will be completed BEFORE a specific point in the future.)
- "Give me an example." (Expected: "By next year, I will have finished my degree.")
- "What about the future conditional --- how is it different?" (Expected: WOULD HAVE + past participle. It talks about something that would have happened under a different condition. "I would have finished if I had had more time.")
- "Give me a sentence with BY." (Expected: "By December, I will have saved enough money." / "By the time you arrive, I will have cooked dinner.")

Quick test --- say these situations:

1. "You're graduating next June. Talk about that." (Expected: "By next June, I will have graduated.")
2. "Your friend is arriving at 8. Dinner will be ready at 7." (Expected: "By the time you arrive, I will have finished cooking.")
3. "Your company reaches 10 years next month." (Expected: "By next month, my company will have been open for 10 years.")
4. "Imagine: you didn't study. What would have happened with the exam?" (Expected: "I would have failed the exam.")
5. "Imagine: you had more time yesterday. What about the report?" (Expected: "I would have finished the report.")
6. "What will you have accomplished by the end of this year?" (Open answer --- must use "will have + past participle.")

One per student. If they freeze, say: "Start with 'By [time], I will have...' and finish the thought."

02:20--02:40 | SHADOWING 5 STEPS (20 min)

YouTube on your phone. Video from break. Subtitles on student phones.

STEP 1 --- LISTEN (3 min): Say: "Just listen. Don't repeat. Don't read. Just listen to the rhythm, the speed, the emotion." Play the clip 3 times.

STEP 2 --- WITH TEXT (4 min): Say: "Now pull up the subtitles on your phone. Listen and repeat WITH the text. Try to match the speaker's speed and intonation." Play 4 times. They repeat along with the audio.

STEP 3 --- WITHOUT TEXT (4 min): Say: "Screens OFF. Face down. Listen and repeat from memory. You won't get every word --- that's fine. Get the rhythm." Play 4 times.

STEP 4 --- EYES CLOSED (3 min): Say: "Close your eyes. Maximum concentration. Repeat everything you hear." Play 3 times.

STEP 5 --- PAIR ROLE PLAY (6 min): Say: "No audio. Pairs face each other. Take turns --- one person says a chunk from memory, the other continues. Try to reconstruct the whole clip from memory. Match the tone, speed, and emotion."

02:40--03:00 | CORRECT THE TEACHER: STORY WITH 12 ERRORS (20 min)

Say: "Now I'm going to tell you a story. This story has 12 errors --- all related to perfect tenses. Present perfect, past perfect, AND future perfect. When you hear an error, shout 'WRONG!' and tell me the correct version. I'll keep score on the board. Ready?"

Write on the board: Student names in a row. Add a tally mark each time someone catches an error.

Read this story SLOWLY. Pause slightly before each error to give them time to catch it. Errors are marked for YOU --- do NOT read the corrections aloud:

"Let me tell you about my friend Carolina. Carolina is someone who has did everything in life. (1 --- has DONE everything --- irregular past participle)

She has traveled to 30 countries. Last year, she has gone to Japan. (2 --- she WENT to Japan --- specific time = past simple, not present perfect)

Before she went to Japan, she learned Japanese for two years. (3 --- she HAD learned Japanese --- past perfect, because the learning happened BEFORE the trip)

When she arrived in Tokyo, she realized she had forget her passport at the hotel. (4 --- had FORGOTTEN --- irregular past participle)

She told me: 'I have never saw anything so beautiful as Mount Fuji.' (5 --- have never SEEN --- irregular past participle)

She also said that she had ate sushi every single day. (6 --- had EATEN --- irregular past participle)

By the time she came home, she has visited 15 cities. (7 --- she HAD visited --- past perfect, not present perfect, because it happened before another past event)

Now Carolina is planning her next trip. By next December, she will has saved enough money. (8 --- will HAVE saved --- will have, not will has)

She says that by 2027, she will have went to every continent. (9 --- will have GONE --- irregular past participle)

Her sister is jealous. She said: 'If I have had more money, I would have traveled too.' (10 --- If I HAD had more money --- third conditional, not 'have had')

Carolina told her: 'By the time you finish university, I will had visited 50 countries.' (11 --- I will HAVE visited --- will have, not will had)

But honestly, Carolina have already accomplished more than most people do in a lifetime." (12 --- HAS already accomplished --- third person singular, not 'have')

After reading: review any errors the class missed. Say the wrong version first, then the correct version. They repeat the correct version twice.

Pairs (8 min): Say: "Now YOU are the teacher. Partner A: tell a short story --- 1 to 2 minutes --- about someone's life using deliberate errors with perfect tenses. Wrong past participles, wrong tense choice, wrong auxiliaries. Partner B: catch and correct. After 4 minutes, SWITCH."

Walk around. Write down good corrections AND missed errors on your error paper.

03:00--03:10 | PRODUCTION: TIMELINE OF MY LIFE (10 min)

Say: "You're going to create a timeline of your life. Past, present, and future. But each section uses a different perfect tense. Watch."

Write on the board:

TIMELINE OF MY LIFE

PAST (Past Perfect --- what happened first):

"Before I started university, I had worked in a restaurant for 2 years."

"By the time I turned 20, I had already traveled to 3 countries."

PRESENT (Present Perfect --- ongoing, up to now):

"I have lived in this city for 5 years."

"I have changed jobs 3 times."

FUTURE (Future Perfect --- goals, predictions):

"By next year, I will have finished my degree."

"By the time I'm 40, I will have started my own business."

Say: "Write 2 sentences for each section. 6 sentences total. Past perfect for sequencing your past. Present perfect for what's true up to now. Future perfect for your goals. You have 7 minutes. Go."

Writing (7 min). Walk around. If someone writes "Before I start university, I had worked" --- point at "start" silently. They self-correct to "started." If they write "I will have went" --- point at it. They self-correct to "gone."

Common errors to watch for:

- Mixing up "had" and "have" --- say: "Past perfect = HAD. Present perfect = HAVE. Which time are you talking about?"
- Wrong past participles --- point silently. Let them self-correct.
- "By next year I will finished" --- say: "No. Will HAVE finished." They repeat.

Presentation (10 min): Say: "Stand up. You're going to share your timeline with the class. Start from the past, move to present, end with future. Like telling the story of your life in 1 minute."

Each student presents (1.5 min each). After each presentation, say: "Class --- did they use all three tenses correctly? Past perfect, present perfect, future perfect?"

If the class spots an error, the presenting student corrects it on the spot. If they can't, you say the correct version. They repeat.

Last 3 min: Say: "Whose future perfect sentence was the most ambitious? Whose past perfect story was the most surprising?" Quick class discussion.

> Error paper. This activity tests whether they can use all three perfect tenses in context. If someone can only produce present perfect but struggles with past and future, note it.

03:10--03:30 | FINAL PROJECT WORKSHOP (20 min)

THE PROJECT MATERIALS STAY AT THE ACADEMY. Students do NOT take their project notes home. Collect everything at the end of this block.

Say: "Time for your Final Project. You have 20 minutes. Today: write the FIRST 3 MINUTES of your presentation. Full sentences. I want to read your introduction and your first main point. Use the structures we have studied --- perfect tenses fit naturally here."

How this works --- you do NOT sit down and wait:

- You have 6 students. That is 3 minutes per student for individual feedback.
- Walk to each student. Read what they have so far. Ask them:
 - "What is your topic?"
 - "What is your main point?"
 - "How are you going to start?"
 - "What structures are you using?"
- Give SPECIFIC feedback: "This sentence needs a relative clause." "Use reported speech here." "Add a causative structure."
- If a student has nothing written: "Start with your first sentence. Write it NOW. I will be back in 3 minutes to check."

Final Project requirements (write on board the first time):

Say: "Your final presentation is 7 to 10 minutes. Any topic. You must speak without stopping. The class asks questions at the end. You must use structures from ALL modules we have studied. No reading from paper --- only note cards with key words. Eyes open."

> This is NOT free time. This is structured work time where the teacher actively coaches each student. If you see a student staring at a blank page for more than 2 minutes, sit with them and help them brainstorm.

■ PORTFOLIO BUILD — DAY 3: PROJECT PRESENTATION SPRINT (15 min)

■■ Use `ANEXO_PORTFOLIO_BUILD_B2_PROFESOR.pdf` (Day 3 section).

Today is Day 3 of the Portfolio Build Cycle. Each student gets ~1 minute to rehearse 1 slide / 1 section of their B2 final project (Shark Tank pitch / business plan / research presentation — coordination defines per cohort).

Setup (1 min): Write on the board:

TODAY'S SPRINT:
- 1 minute per student
- Speak only ABOUT the section you're working on this week
- No reading from screen
- Listen for: clarity + 1 strong sentence per section

Rehearsal round (12 min): ~12 students × ~1 min each. Each student stands. Says "My project section this week is about X." Speaks ~1 min about it. No notes.

Peer feedback (2 min): After each student: "What was clear? What was the strongest sentence?" One peer answers.

Your feedback during activity: Pronunciation, clarity, pacing. "Stronger ending — repeat that last sentence with more confidence." Don't critique content.

> If a student doesn't have a project section ready: "Then practice your 60-sec pitch instead. 1 minute, GO." Don't penalize.

■ SELF-CHECK (5 min)

Hand out self-check sheet. Students fill ALL fields. COLLECT. CHECK EVERY ONE: blank field = hand it back, fill it NOW. No incomplete sheets accepted. Send to coordination TODAY.

■ HOMEWORK + CLOSE (5 min)

Write on the board:

DAILY INVESTMENT (15-30 min today):

1. PROFESSIONAL GOLDLIST: 10 new business / academic phrases (idioms, connectors, STAR vocabulary).
Send a photo of your notebook to WhatsApp.
 2. WATCH any recording from today (pitch / interview).
Write 3 things you'd improve.
 3. CV / LinkedIn / Project: continue your work.
- Coordination reviews on schedule.

Say: "Daily investment is non-negotiable for B2. The Goldlist now lives in your daily WhatsApp routine — not in our class. In class we use that time for your portfolio."

Notes:
