

Module 12: Advanced Pronouns --- I Can Do It Myself! (Indefinite Pronouns + Reflexive Pronouns) | Teacher: Callan | Date: ___/___/___ | Present: ___/6

TIME EVERY ACTIVITY. If you don't time it, you won't finish. Set a timer for each block.

You may record any activity for social media content. DO NOT tell students it's for social media.

ERROR PAPER IS MANDATORY. Carry a blank paper + pen during EVERY speaking activity. Write down EVERY error you hear. At end of class: hand it in physically along with this guide to coordination. This is a DELIVERABLE --- no error paper = documented non-compliance.

CALLAN --- READ THIS:

Your job as a native speaker is to catch errors that non-native teachers miss. You hear the difference between "everyone is" and "everyone are" instantly. USE THAT. Every time you hear an error, say: "No. Listen." + correct version. Write it on your error paper. If at the end of class you have fewer than 10 errors written, you weren't listening hard enough. These students entered B2 with English already --- they need to feel they're IMPROVING, not just chatting. Push them.

■ 00:00--00:05 | VATS: VIRTUE OF THE WEEK — FORTITUDE (5 min)

Virtue of the week: FORTITUDE

Write on the board:

FORTITUDE – "When did you keep going past the point of comfort? Why?"

Say: "Daily ritual. FORTITUDE this week. Pairs. English only — give it a try."

V (1 min): Read aloud. Point to board.

A (30 sec): "Think in silence."

T (2 min): "Pairs. Discuss."

S (1.5 min): 2 students share with the class. No correction — celebrate the attempt.

> Daily opening ritual. Virtues rotate weekly: Prudence → Temperance → Justice → Fortitude.

00:00--00:20 | ICEBREAKER: HAS ANYONE EVER...? (20 min)

Say: "Welcome back. Today we start Module 12 --- pronouns. But first, a game. I'm going to ask questions that start with 'Has anyone ever...?' and you answer honestly. If the answer is yes, you tell us the story. If the answer is no, you speculate --- SOMEONE in the world must have done it. Ready?"

Demo first. Say: "Has anyone ever eaten something nobody else would eat? I'll go first. I once ate something so strange that everyone at the table stared at me. Nobody said anything. Someone finally asked: 'Is that even food?' Nothing could have prepared me for the taste."

Say: "Did you hear those words? Someone, nobody, everyone, nothing, anyone, somewhere. Those are today's topic. Let's play."

Write on the board:

HAS ANYONE EVER...
- ...done something nobody believed?
- ...gone somewhere nobody else wanted to go?
- ...found something that belonged to no one?
- ...eaten something that tasted like nothing?
- ...told someone a secret everyone already knew?
- ...been somewhere where everything went wrong?

Round 1 (10 min). Read each question. Point at a student. They answer with a story OR speculate. Push them to use the pronoun naturally. If a student says "all people" instead of "everyone," say: "No. Listen. Everyone. Say it." They repeat.

Round 2 (5 min). Say: "Now YOU ask the questions. Make your own 'Has anyone ever...?' question. Use at least one of these words: someone, nobody, everyone, nothing, anything, somewhere, everywhere."

Each student asks one question. Another student answers. Go around.

Last 5 min. Say: "Who had the best story? Vote." Quick vote. Winner tells the story one more time --- this time you listen for errors and correct on the spot.

> Write down every error. Note who avoids indefinite pronouns and uses "the people" or "all persons" instead. These students need extra attention in the book section.

■ HOMEWORK + CLOSE (5 min)

Write on the board:

DAILY INVESTMENT (15-30 min today):
1. PROFESSIONAL GOLDLIST: 10 new business / academic phrases (idioms, connectors, STAR vocabulary).
Send a photo of your notebook to WhatsApp.
2. WATCH any recording from today (pitch / interview).
Write 3 things you'd improve.
3. CV / LinkedIn / Project: continue your work.
Coordination reviews on schedule.

Say: "Daily investment is non-negotiable for B2. The Goldlist now lives in your daily WhatsApp routine — not in our class. In class we use that time for your portfolio."

00:35--00:55 | BOOK: MODULE 12 GUIDE 1 --- INDEFINITE PRONOUNS (20 min)

Say: "Open your book to Module 12, Guide 1 --- Indefinite Pronouns. Read the explanation, the chart, and ALL the examples. You have 8 minutes. Read everything. Don't skip anything."

First 8 min: They read in pairs. You don't speak. Walk around checking they're reading, not chatting.

Last 12 min: Sit with each pair. THEY explain to you. Ask them:

- "What are the four prefixes for indefinite pronouns?" (every-, some-, any-, no-)
- "What are the three categories?" (person, place, thing)
- "Give me the word for every + person." (everyone / everybody)
- "Give me the word for no + place." (nowhere)
- "Give me the word for some + thing." (something)
- "Is it 'everyone IS' or 'everyone ARE'?" (everyone IS --- always 3rd person singular)
- "When do you use SOME in a question?" (When the speaker suspects something exists: "Is something wrong?")
- "When do you use ANY?" (Negatives and questions --- also means 'cualquier': "Anything can happen.")
- "Can you use NO and NOT together? 'I don't have nothing' --- is that correct?" (No. Double negative. "I don't have anything" OR "I have nothing.")

If they get one wrong: "No. Listen." Give the correct answer. They repeat twice.

Quick-fire drill. Say each sentence. Students tell you if it's CORRECT or WRONG. If wrong, they give the correct version:

1. "Everyone are ready to go." (WRONG --- Everyone IS ready to go.)
2. "I don't know anyone here." (CORRECT.)
3. "Somebody have my phone." (WRONG --- Somebody HAS my phone.)
4. "She went nowhere yesterday." (CORRECT.)
5. "I don't have nothing to say." (WRONG --- double negative. "I don't have anything to say" OR "I have nothing to say.")
6. "Is something wrong?" (CORRECT --- speaker suspects something is wrong.)
7. "Nobody know the answer." (WRONG --- Nobody KNOWS the answer.)
8. "You can go anywhere you want." (CORRECT --- "any" meaning "cualquier.")
9. "Everything are fine." (WRONG --- Everything IS fine.)
10. "Someone left their bag here." (CORRECT --- informal, "their" is accepted for unknown gender.)

One per student, then keep going. If they freeze: "Is it 3rd person singular? Yes. So what's the verb?" They try again.

00:55--01:10 | EXERCISES (15 min)

Say: "Do the exercises for Guide 1. Check your answers with the Answer Key at the back. If you and your partner disagree, discuss. If neither of you knows, raise your hand."

Walk around. Give the correct version only --- never explain rules.

Common errors to watch for:

- Subject-verb agreement: "Everyone are" / "Nobody know" / "Somebody have"
- Double negatives: "I don't have nothing" / "She can't go nowhere"
- Wrong prefix for context: Using "something" in a negative sentence instead of "anything"
- "No one" written as one word ("noone") --- it's two words or hyphenated (no one / no-one)

If 50%+ get the same thing wrong, STOP. Write the rule on the board. Give two examples. They repeat.

01:10--01:40 | STRUCTURED CONVERSATION: THE MYSTERY (30 min)

Say: "Put your books away. I'm going to tell you a story --- a mystery. But I'm not going to finish it. You have to figure out what happened. You ask me questions. I answer. But HERE ARE THE RULES."

Write on the board:

THE MYSTERY --- RULES:
- Every question MUST use an indefinite pronoun (someone, anyone, nobody, something, anything, nothing, somewhere, anywhere, nowhere, everyone,
everything, everywhere)
- Every statement MUST use an indefinite pronoun
- If you ask a question WITHOUT an indefinite pronoun,
I will say: "Rephrase."
- I will correct EVERY grammar error I hear.

THE STORY. Read this exactly:

"Last Tuesday night, a woman named Elena walked into a police station. She was shaking. She said: 'Something terrible has happened. Someone has taken my husband. He was at home. Now he's gone. Nobody saw anything. Nothing was broken. Everything was exactly where it should be --- except him. He has disappeared. I have looked everywhere. He is nowhere. Can anyone help me?'"

Say: "That's all you get. Now --- you are the detectives. Ask me questions. I am the police chief. I know things about this case that you don't. But you MUST use indefinite pronouns in every question."

YOUR ANSWERS. Memorize or keep this sheet visible. When they ask questions, use these details to build the story:

- Did anyone hear anything? --- "A neighbor heard something around 11 PM. She said it sounded like someone was arguing. But she didn't see anyone."
- Was anything missing from the house? --- "Nothing was missing. Everything was in its place. That's what's strange."
- Did someone call him? --- "Everyone who knows him has tried calling. Nobody can reach him."
- Has anyone checked his workplace? --- "Someone from the office said he left work at 6 PM. Nobody saw him after that."
- Was there something on his phone? --- "His phone was found somewhere near the park. There was nothing on it --- someone had deleted everything."
- Did he tell anyone anything? --- "His best friend said he mentioned something strange last week. He said: 'If anything happens to me, don't believe anyone.'"
- Has anyone looked everywhere? --- "The police have searched everywhere in the neighborhood. They found nothing."
- Is there anyone suspicious? --- "Nobody has come forward. But someone left an envelope under the door of the police station. There was nothing inside --- just an empty envelope with his name."

HOW TO RUN THIS:

- Students ask questions. You answer using the details above.
- If a student asks a question WITHOUT an indefinite pronoun (e.g., "What happened to the man?"), say: "Rephrase. Use an indefinite pronoun." They try again: "Did something happen to someone?"
- If a student makes a GRAMMAR error (e.g., "Did anyone saw anything?"), say: "No. Listen. Did anyone SEE anything?" They repeat.
- WRITE EVERY ERROR ON YOUR ERROR PAPER.
- After 15 minutes of Q&A, say: "Now --- what do you think happened? Each of you gives a theory. Use indefinite pronouns."

Theories (10 min). Each student presents a theory (about 1.5 min each). Push them:

- "Did someone take him? Who? Use 'someone.'"
- "Was there anything on the phone that was important?"
- "Is anyone lying? Who?"
- "Where is he? Use 'somewhere' or 'nowhere.'"

Final reveal (5 min). Say: "Here is what actually happened. Nobody took him. He left on his own. He went somewhere nobody would look --- a small town where no one knew his name. He had told no one his plan. Everyone thought something terrible had happened, but nothing was wrong. He simply wanted to start a new life. Someone eventually found him --- a journalist who was investigating something else entirely. Everything became clear. Sometimes, nobody is the villain."

> This activity replaces Shadowing. The key is constant correction. You are a native speaker --- you hear every error. USE THAT. If a student says "Did anyone saw?" you catch it INSTANTLY. That is your value. Do not let errors slide.

01:40--02:00 | BREAK (20 min)

Students rest. Phones allowed. YOU:

- Review error paper from the first half. Count the errors. If you have fewer than 10, you missed some. Think about what you heard.
- Identify the most common error patterns to watch for in the second half.
- Prepare the Correct the Teacher story (next activity) --- read it once so you can tell it naturally, not reading robotically.

02:00--02:20 | CORRECT THE TEACHER: STORY WITH 12 ERRORS (20 min)

Say: "Now I'm going to tell you a story. This story has 12 errors --- all related to indefinite pronouns. When you hear an error, shout 'WRONG!' and tell me the correct version. I'll keep score on the board. Ready?"

Write on the board: Student names in a row. Add a tally mark each time someone catches an error.

Read this story SLOWLY. Pause slightly before each error to give them time to catch it. Errors are marked for YOU --- do NOT read the corrections aloud:

"Last summer, I went on a road trip with my friends. Everyone were excited about the trip. (1 --- Everyone WAS excited --- 3rd person singular, always)

We drove to a small town where nobody have ever been before. (2 --- nobody HAD ever been --- 3rd person singular past perfect)

When we arrived, we couldn't find anywhere to eat. Everything was closed. But then somebody suggest a place near the beach. (3 --- somebody SUGGESTED --- 3rd person singular past tense)

We went there and found something amazing --- the best seafood restaurant I've ever seen. We ordered everything on the menu. The waiter said: 'Has everybody decided?' I said: 'Yes, everybody have decided.' (4 --- everybody HAS decided --- 3rd person singular)

After dinner, we went for a walk. I don't saw nobody on the beach. (5 --- I didn't SEE anyone / I saw nobody --- double negative AND wrong verb form)

It was completely empty. My friend Carlos said: 'There isn't nothing to do here at night.' (6 --- There isn't ANYTHING to do / There is NOTHING to do --- double negative)

But then we heard something. Someone were playing guitar near the water. (7 --- Someone WAS playing --- 3rd person singular)

We walked closer and found a group of locals having a bonfire. They said: 'Is anybody want to join?' (8 --- Does anybody WANT to join? --- question structure)

We said yes. That night, we talked to everyone. Anyone had a story to tell. (9 --- EVERYONE had a story to tell --- 'anyone' doesn't work in affirmative statements meaning 'all'; should be 'everyone')

One man said: 'I have traveled everywhere, but I haven't found somewhere more beautiful than this beach.' (10 --- I haven't found ANYWHERE more beautiful --- use 'anywhere' in negative sentences, not 'somewhere')

At midnight, nobody wanted to leave. Somebody say: 'Let's stay until sunrise.' (11 --- Somebody SAID --- 3rd person singular past tense)

We stayed. And when the sun came up, everyone agree it was the best night of the entire trip." (12 --- everyone AGREED --- 3rd person singular past tense)

After reading (5 min): Review any errors the class missed. Say the wrong version first, then the correct version. They repeat the correct version twice.

Pairs (8 min): Say: "Now YOU are the teacher. Partner A: tell a short story --- 1 to 2 minutes --- with deliberate errors using indefinite pronouns. At least 4 errors. Partner B: catch and correct. After 4 minutes, SWITCH."

Walk around. Write down good corrections AND missed errors on your error paper.

> If the class catches fewer than 8 of the 12 errors, they need more practice. Note this for coordination.

02:20--02:45 | PRODUCTION: THE DETECTIVE (25 min)

Say: "You are all detectives now. A crime has been committed. Here is what we know."

Write on the board:

THE CASE:
- A famous painting was stolen from the city museum last night between 10 PM and 2 AM.
- The alarm system was turned off by SOMEONE.
- NOTHING was caught on camera --- someone deleted the footage.
- EVERYONE who works at the museum is a suspect.
- The painting was worth $5 million.

YOUR JOB:
- 2 students = DETECTIVES (ask questions)
- 2 students = MUSEUM STAFF (answer questions --- you may be hiding something)
- 2 students = WITNESSES (you saw something but you're not sure what)

RULE: Every question and every answer MUST contain at least one indefinite pronoun.

Assign roles (2 min). Point at students: "You two --- detectives. You two --- museum staff. You two --- witnesses."

Give secret instructions to each group. Say these quietly or write them on paper:

To MUSEUM STAFF: "One of you turned off the alarm. You know who did it but you're protecting them. When asked, deflect: 'Nobody touched the alarm' / 'I didn't see anyone near the control panel.'"

To WITNESSES: "You saw someone running from the museum at midnight. You saw something in their hands, but it was dark. You're not sure of anything. Use: 'I think I saw someone...' / 'Something was in their hands but I couldn't see anything clearly.'"

To DETECTIVES: "Ask questions using indefinite pronouns. Push hard. If someone is lying, challenge them: 'Are you telling me nobody saw anything? That's impossible.' / 'Someone must know something.'"

Round 1 --- Investigation (10 min). Detectives question museum staff first (5 min), then witnesses (5 min). You stand back. Write errors on your error paper. Only interrupt for errors: "No. Listen." + correct version.

Round 2 --- Accusation (5 min). Say: "Detectives --- who did it? Present your theory. Use indefinite pronouns. Start with: 'We believe someone...' or 'Nobody is telling the truth because...'"

Each detective gives their theory (2.5 min each).

Round 3 --- The Twist (3 min). Say: "Here is what really happened. Nobody on the staff stole the painting. Someone from OUTSIDE the museum did it --- a former employee who still had access to everything. This person told no one about their plan. Nothing on the cameras because they knew where every camera was. The painting? It was hidden somewhere nobody would look --- inside another painting in the museum's storage. Sometimes the answer is right in front of everyone, and nobody sees anything."

Debrief (5 min). Say: "Which indefinite pronouns did you use the most? Which ones did you forget? Someone give me a sentence with 'nowhere.' Someone give me a sentence with 'everybody.' Someone give me a sentence with 'anything.'" Go around. Correct errors.

> Error paper. This is free production. Errors WILL appear. Write them ALL down.

02:45--03:00 | DEBATE: CAN ANYONE REALLY DO ANYTHING THEY WANT IN LIFE? (15 min)

Say: "Final debate of the day. The question is:" Write on the board:

DEBATE: Can anyone really do anything they want in life?

TEAM A: YES --- anyone can do anything (3 students)

TEAM B: NO --- not everyone can do everything (3 students)

RULES:

- You MUST use indefinite pronouns in every argument
- Minimum 3 different indefinite pronouns per argument
- If you make a statement without an indefinite pronoun, I will say: "Rephrase."

Assign teams (1 min). Split the class. If someone disagrees with their side: "That's the point. Argue the position you're given."

Prepare (3 min). Teams huddle. Each person prepares 2 arguments.

Write example arguments on the board:

YES: "Anyone can achieve anything if they work hard enough. Nobody is born without some kind of talent. Everyone has something special. The problem is that some people do nothing about it. But if someone truly wants something, nothing can stop them."

NO: "Not everyone has the same opportunities. Someone born in poverty can't do everything that someone born rich can do. Nobody chooses where they are born. Saying 'anyone can do anything' ignores that some people have nothing to start with. Not everything is about effort --- sometimes nobody gives you a chance."

Debate (8 min). Format:

- Team A: Student 1 gives argument (1 min). Team B: Student 1 responds (1 min).
- Team A: Student 2 gives argument (1 min). Team B: Student 2 responds (1 min).
- Open floor: Anyone can jump in with a final point (2 min).
- Every response MUST use indefinite pronouns. If they don't, say: "Rephrase."

Vote + personal opinion (3 min). Say: "Which team had the strongest arguments? Vote." Quick hand vote. Say: "Now --- what do YOU personally believe? One sentence. Must include at least two indefinite pronouns." Go around. 6 students, ~20 seconds each.

> Error paper. Free production. Write down every error.

03:00--03:20 | FINAL PROJECT WORKSHOP (20 min)

THE PROJECT MATERIALS STAY AT THE ACADEMY. Students do NOT take their project notes home. Collect everything at the end of this block.

Say: "Time for your Final Project. You have 20 minutes. Today: review what you have so far and add language from Module 12. Find places in your presentation where you can use indefinite pronouns naturally. Also --- practice your timing. Is it between 7 and 10 minutes? If it's too short, add more. If it's too long, cut. The course ends in about 4 weeks. This is not optional."

How this works --- you do NOT sit down and wait:

- You have 6 students. That is 3 minutes per student for individual feedback.
- Walk to each student. Read what they have so far. Ask them:
 - "What is your topic?"
 - "Show me where you're using indefinite pronouns. Can you add 'everyone,' 'someone,' 'nothing,' 'anywhere' naturally?"
 - "What structures from previous modules are you using? Causative? Relative clauses? Reported speech? Noun-adjective pairs?"
 - "Time yourself. Read your presentation aloud to me right now --- just the first 2 minutes. Are you on pace for 7 to 10 minutes?"
- Give SPECIFIC feedback: "Add 'everyone knows that...' here." "This sentence says 'all people' --- change it to 'everyone.'" "Use 'nobody' instead of 'no person.'" "Blend a previous module structure into this paragraph."
- If a student has nothing written: "Start with your first sentence. Write it NOW. I will be back in 3 minutes to check."

Final Project requirements (remind them):

Say: "Your final presentation is 7 to 10 minutes. Any topic. You must speak without stopping. The class asks questions at the end. You must use structures from ALL modules we have studied --- including today's indefinite pronouns. No reading from paper --- only note cards with key words. We have about 4 weeks left. If you haven't started, you are behind."

> This is NOT free time. This is structured work time where you actively coach each student. If you see a student staring at a blank page for more than 2 minutes, sit with them and help them brainstorm.

03:20--03:30 | BOOK: MODULE 12 GUIDE 2 --- REFLEXIVE PRONOUNS (10 min)

If the book includes Guide 2, do this section. If not, skip to Self-check and use these 10 minutes for extra practice on Guide 1.

Say: "Open your book to Guide 2 --- Reflexive Pronouns. Read the explanation and examples. You have 4 minutes."

First 4 min: They read in pairs. Walk around silently.

Last 6 min: Quick drill. Say each sentence. Students complete it:

1. "I cut ____ while cooking." (myself)
2. "She taught ____ to play guitar." (herself)
3. "He hurt ____ playing football." (himself)
4. "We enjoyed ____ at the party." (ourselves)
5. "They introduced ____ to the new neighbors." (themselves)
6. "You should be proud of ____." (yourself / yourselves)
7. "The cat cleaned ____." (itself)
8. "I did the entire project by ____." (myself --- meaning 'alone')

Say: "Remember --- 'by myself' means 'alone.' 'I did it myself' means 'I did it without help.' Same meaning, two ways to say it."

If they get one wrong: "No. Listen." Give the correct answer. They repeat twice.

> If there is no Guide 2 in the book, use these 10 minutes for a rapid-fire game: you say a sentence with a WRONG indefinite pronoun, students correct it.
Example: "I don't have nothing" --- "I don't have ANYTHING." Go fast. 15-20 sentences.

■ PORTFOLIO BUILD — DAY 2: 60-SECOND VIDEO PITCH (15 min)

■ Use `ANEXO_PORTFOLIO_BUILD_B2_PROFESOR.pdf` (Day 2 section).

Today is Day 2 of the Portfolio Build Cycle. Students record a 60-second video pitch on their phone, listen back, and improve.

Setup (1 min): Write the pitch structure on the board:

60-SECOND PITCH:
[10s] HOOK: Who am I in one phrase?
[15s] WHAT I DO + 1 RESULT
[15s] PASSION + 1 EXAMPLE
[15s] WHAT I'M LOOKING FOR
[5s] CLOSE: name + email/LinkedIn

Plan round (3 min): "3 minutes. Write your 5 sections in your notebook. Single bullet each. No paragraphs."

Record round 1 (4 min): "Stand up. Phone in selfie mode. 60 seconds — GO." Set timer. Walk silently. At 60 sec: "Stop. Replay it. Listen to yourself."

Improve round (5 min): "What's ONE thing to fix? Record AGAIN, 60 sec."

Submit (2 min): "Send the IMPROVED version to WhatsApp with tag: PITCH-CYCLE[N]-[YourName]." Coordination collects pitches and gives written feedback before next Day 2.

Your feedback during activity: Walk silently. If someone freezes: "Just say one true sentence. Then keep going." After replay: "What did YOU notice?"

> See `ANEXO_PORTFOLIO_BUILD_B2_PROFESOR.pdf` Day 2 for the full script.

03:30--03:40 | SELF-CHECK + HOMEWORK + CLOSE (10 min)

Self-check (5 min):

Hand out self-check sheet. Students fill ALL fields. COLLECT. CHECK EVERY ONE: blank field = hand it back, fill it NOW. No incomplete sheets accepted. Send to coordination TODAY.

Homework (5 min):

Say: "Two homework assignments. Write these down."

Write on the board:

HOMEWORK --- DUE NEXT CLASS

1. Write 10 sentences about your life using indefinite pronouns. Use at least 6 DIFFERENT pronouns from today's list (someone, nobody, everything, anywhere, etc.). Each sentence must be DIFFERENT --- don't repeat the same pronoun in every sentence.
Example: "Nobody in my family speaks English except me. Everyone thinks it's impressive.
I can practice anywhere --- at home, at work, on the bus. Nothing stops me."

2. Write 5 sentences using reflexive pronouns.
Use at least 4 DIFFERENT reflexive pronouns (myself, yourself, himself, herself, ourselves, themselves).
Example: "I taught myself to cook when I was 15.
My sister hurt herself playing basketball last week. We enjoyed ourselves at the concert."

Say: "Any questions? See you next class."

> AFTER DISMISSING STUDENTS:

> 1. Collect all Final Project materials. Store at the academy. Students do NOT take these home.

> 2. Send the homework as a text message in the WhatsApp group. Copy the homework assignment EXACTLY from above. No student can say "I didn't know" or "I forgot." If it's not in the group chat, it didn't happen.

> 3. Hand in your error paper PHYSICALLY along with this printed guide to coordination. Do not photograph it. Hand in the paper.
