

TIME EVERY ACTIVITY. If you don't time it, you won't finish. Set a timer for each block.

You may record any activity for social media content. DO NOT tell students it's for social media.

ERROR PAPER IS MANDATORY. Carry a blank paper + pen during EVERY speaking activity. Write down EVERY error you hear. At end of class: hand it in physically along with this guide to coordination. This is a DELIVERABLE --- no error paper = documented non-compliance.

CALLAN --- READ THIS:

Today is MOCK PRESENTATIONS. This is the most important class before the final. Every student presents for 5-7 minutes, the class asks questions, and you give detailed feedback. You need a separate sheet of paper for EACH student's presentation --- write their name at the top and note: grammar errors, pronunciation issues, filler words, structure problems, timing, and strengths. Hand all 6 sheets to coordination along with your error paper. These students need to know EXACTLY what to fix before the real presentation. Be direct, be specific, be honest. Fewer than 10 total errors across all 6 presentations = you weren't listening.

■ 00:00--00:05 | VATS: VIRTUE OF THE WEEK — PRUDENCE (5 min)

Virtue of the week: PRUDENCE

Write on the board:

PRUDENCE — "What's a recent decision you regret? What would prudence have done?"

Say: "Daily ritual. PRUDENCE this week. Pairs. English only — give it a try."

V (1 min): Read aloud. Point to board.

A (30 sec): "Think in silence."

T (2 min): "Pairs. Discuss."

S (1.5 min): 2 students share with the class. No correction — celebrate the attempt.

> Daily opening ritual. Virtues rotate weekly: Prudence → Temperance → Justice → Fortitude.

■ ERROR PAPER REVIEW — DAY 6 (20 min)

■ Use `ANEXO_ERROR_PAPER_REVIEW.pdf` for the full protocol.

Today is Day 6 — this block runs every 5 classes to review the accumulated errors from previous classes.

Before class: coordination or the teacher fills in the table below with the Top 10 recurring errors from the last 5 classes (based on error papers). If not filled in, the teacher does it from memory at the start of the block.

TODAY'S 10 ERRORS (fill in before / at the start of class):

| # | ■ Error heard | → | ■ Correct version |

|---|-----|---|-----|

| 1 | | → | |

| 2 | | → | |

| 3 | | → | |

| 4 | | → | |

| 5 | | → | |

| 6 | | → | |

| 7 | | → | |

| 8 | | → | |

| 9 | | → | |

| 10 | | → | |

Setup (1 min): Copy the 10 errors from the table onto the classroom board.

Group modeling (8 min): For each error, say the WRONG version aloud without judgment. The class identifies what's wrong. You model the correct version. The class repeats 2 times. No-Listen-Repeat technique. Do NOT explain the grammar rule — only model.

Pair drill (8 min): "Pairs. Person A says the wrong version. Person B corrects with the right one. Then switch. Go through all 10 errors."

Close + commitment (3 min): Each student picks ONE error they most want to eliminate. They write in their notebook:

I will stop saying: _____
I will say instead: _____

"In 5 classes I'll ask you about this. If you eliminated it: 5 English Points."

> No names. No shame. These are errors of language meeting the mouth, not personal failures. If your error paper was weak this week: report to coordination.

00:00--00:15 | ICEBREAKER: ONE-MINUTE EXPERT (15 min)

Say: "Welcome. Today is Mock Presentation day. Everyone presents. But first --- warm-up. We are going to play One-Minute Expert. I give you a random topic. You have ZERO preparation time. You speak for exactly one minute. No stopping. No 'um.' No 'I don't know what to say.' Just talk. This is your warm-up for your presentation."

Topics (pick one per student, or let them draw from folded papers):

1. Why dogs are better than cats
2. How to survive a zombie apocalypse
3. Why breakfast is the most important meal
4. The worst advice you have ever received
5. Why learning a language is like learning to cook
6. If you could have dinner with any person in history, who and why

Round (12 min). Each student gets exactly 1 minute. Time them strictly. If they stop before 1 minute: "Keep going. You have 20 seconds left. Say something." If they go over: "Time. Stop."

After each student, quick feedback (10 seconds only): "Good pace" or "Too many pauses" or "Great vocabulary" or "Watch your verb tenses." Do NOT give detailed feedback --- save that energy for the real presentations.

Debrief (3 min). Say: "That was hard, right? One minute with no prep is harder than 7 minutes with preparation. Your presentation should feel EASIER than what you just did. If it doesn't, you haven't practiced enough. Let's go."

> Error paper. Even in the icebreaker, write errors. Every minute counts.

■ HOMEWORK + CLOSE (5 min)

Write on the board:

DAILY INVESTMENT (15-30 min today):
1. PROFESSIONAL GOLDLIST: 10 new business / academic phrases (idioms, connectors, STAR vocabulary).
Send a photo of your notebook to WhatsApp.
2. WATCH any recording from today (pitch / interview).
Write 3 things you'd improve.
3. CV / LinkedIn / Project: continue your work.
Coordination reviews on schedule.

Say: "Daily investment is non-negotiable for B2. The Goldlist now lives in your daily WhatsApp routine — not in our class. In class we use that time for your portfolio."

00:25--01:55 | MOCK PRESENTATIONS (90 min total --- 15 min per student)

Say: "Here is how this works. Each student presents for 5 to 7 minutes. After the presentation, the class asks questions for 3 minutes. Then I give feedback for 3 to 4 minutes. That is 15 minutes per student. 6 students. 90 minutes total. We cannot go over. I will time everything strictly."

Write on the board:

MOCK PRESENTATION --- FORMAT

1. Present: 5-7 minutes (I will stop you at 7)
2. Q&A: 3 minutes (class asks, you answer)
3. Feedback: 3-4 minutes (from me + class)

WHAT I AM LOOKING FOR:

- Clear structure (intro, body, conclusion)
- Use of grammar from Modules 1-12 (at least 6 different structures)
- Fluency (minimal pauses, no reading)
- Eye contact with the class
- Timing (7-10 min for the real one --- today 5-7 min is acceptable)
- Ability to answer questions

AUDIENCE:

- Listen carefully
- Write down 1 strength and 1 suggestion for each presenter
- Prepare at least 1 question per presentation

FOR EACH STUDENT (repeat this process 6 times):

Step 1 --- Presentation (5-7 min).

Say: "Student name, you're up. Come to the front. Leave your note cards on the table --- you can glance at them, but do NOT read from them. Class: listen. Write down one strength and one area to improve. Ready? Go."

Start your timer. While they present:

• On a separate sheet for this student, write their name at the top and note:

- Grammar errors (exact quote + correct version): e.g., "Said 'if I would have' --- should be 'if I had'"
- Pronunciation errors: e.g., "Pronounces 'comfortable' as 'com-for-TAB-le' --- should be 'CUMF-ter-bul'"
- Filler words: count "um," "uh," "like," "you know" --- write the total
- Structure notes: "No clear introduction" / "Conclusion was abrupt" / "Good transition between points"

- Module structures used: check which ones you hear --- e.g., "Used: passive, conditional, relative clause, reported speech. Missing: causative, inversion, phrasal verbs"

- Timing: exact time they spoke

Do NOT interrupt during the presentation. Let them finish. Save corrections for feedback.

If they stop before 5 minutes: "You still have time. Keep going. Expand on your last point."

At 7 minutes: "Time. Wrap up with one final sentence."

Step 2 --- Q&A (3 min).

Say: "Class --- questions. At least 3 questions."

If the class is slow to ask: seed questions yourself:

- "Why did you choose this topic?"
- "You mentioned [X]. Can you explain that more?"
- "What would you change about [topic] if you could?"
- "Do you think everyone agrees with your point about [X]?"
- "If you had to summarize your presentation in one sentence, what would it be?"

While the presenter answers, listen for errors but do NOT interrupt. Write them on their feedback sheet.

Step 3 --- Feedback (3-4 min).

Give feedback in this order:

1. Timing: "Your presentation was [X] minutes. For the final, you need 7 to 10. You need to [add more / cut some]."

2. Structure: "Your introduction was [clear/unclear]. Your body had [X] main points --- that's [enough/not enough]. Your conclusion was [strong/weak/missing]."

3. Grammar --- TOP 3 ERRORS: Pick the 3 most important errors from your notes. Say each one:

- "You said: '[wrong version]'. The correct version is: '[correct version]'. Say it." They repeat.

- "You said: '[wrong version]'. The correct version is: '[correct version]'. Say it." They repeat.

- "You said: '[wrong version]'. The correct version is: '[correct version]'. Say it." They repeat.

4. Module structures: "I heard you use [list structures]. I did NOT hear [list missing structures]. For the final, add at least [X] more. Specifically, try adding [specific structure] in your section about [specific part of their presentation]."

5. Delivery: "Your eye contact was [good/needs work]. Your pace was [good/too fast/too slow]. You used [X] filler words --- for the final, try to reduce that to zero."

6. One strength: Always end with something genuinely positive. "Your strongest moment was when you said [specific quote]. That was clear, well-structured, and confident. Do more of that."

Say: "Class --- what was this student's biggest strength?" One student answers. "What is one thing they should improve?" One student answers.

STUDENT ORDER. Decide before class or ask for volunteers. If no one volunteers, assign:

Student 1: 00:25--00:40 (15 min)

Student 2: 00:40--00:55 (15 min)

Student 3: 00:55--01:10 (15 min)

If you are running behind by more than 5 minutes after Student 3, shorten feedback to 2 minutes per student for the remaining presenters. Do NOT skip Q&A.

Student 4: 01:10--01:25 (15 min)

Student 5: 01:25--01:40 (15 min)

Student 6: 01:40--01:55 (15 min)

> CRITICAL: Keep time. If one student goes to 10 minutes, you lose time for others. Be strict. 7 minutes MAX for the presentation, then cut.

01:55--02:15 | BREAK (20 min)

Students rest. Phones allowed. YOU:

- Review your 6 individual feedback sheets. Make sure each one has: grammar errors, pronunciation notes, filler word count, structure evaluation, module structures used/missing, timing, and one strength.
- Review your error paper. Count errors across all presentations.
- Prepare the Correct the Teacher activity --- read the story below and note the errors from the presentations you just watched. You will customize it.

02:15--02:40 | CORRECT THE TEACHER: ERRORS FROM THE PRESENTATIONS (25 min)

Say: "I listened to all 6 of your presentations. Now I'm going to tell you a story. But this story contains errors --- and these errors are the EXACT errors I heard from YOUR presentations. When you hear an error, shout 'WRONG!' and give me the correct version. Let's see if you can catch your own mistakes."

Write on the board: Student names in a row. Tally marks for each correction.

HOW TO PREPARE THIS:

Before class or during the break, take the most common/important errors from the mock presentations and build them into a story. Since you don't know the errors in advance, use this TEMPLATE STORY and INSERT the actual errors you heard. Replace the bracketed sections with real errors from today's presentations.

TEMPLATE STORY --- adapt with real errors from today:

"I want to tell you about someone I know. Let's call him Luis. Luis has always been a very interesting person.

[INSERT ERROR 1 from a student's presentation --- e.g., if a student said 'I have been know him for years,' say: 'I have been know Luis for many years.' Wait for correction: 'I have KNOWN Luis for many years.']

Luis grew up in a small town. When he was young, he dreamed of becoming an architect. His parents always supported him.

[INSERT ERROR 2 --- e.g., if a student said 'the person which helped me,' say: 'The person which inspired Luis was his grandfather.' Wait for correction: 'The person WHO inspired Luis was his grandfather.']

After finishing school, Luis moved to the capital. Everything changed for him there.

[INSERT ERROR 3 --- e.g., if a student said 'she said me that,' say: 'His grandfather said him that he should follow his dreams.' Wait for correction: 'His grandfather TOLD him that he should follow his dreams.']

In the capital, Luis had to start from zero. He didn't know anyone.

[INSERT ERROR 4 --- e.g., if a student said 'If I would have studied,' say: 'Luis thought: if I would have stayed in my hometown, life would be easier.' Wait for correction: 'If I HAD stayed in my hometown, life would be easier.']

But Luis worked hard. He studied architecture and eventually got his first job.

[INSERT ERROR 5 --- e.g., if a student said 'I wish I can,' say: 'He wished he can work on bigger projects.' Wait for correction: 'He wished he COULD work on bigger projects.']

Years later, Luis became one of the most respected architects in the country.

[INSERT ERROR 6 --- e.g., if a student used a wrong passive: 'A beautiful museum was design by Luis.' Wait for correction: 'A beautiful museum was DESIGNED by Luis.']

Today, Luis has everything he ever wanted.

[INSERT ERROR 7 --- e.g., wrong causative: 'He had his house to build exactly the way he wanted.' Wait for correction: 'He had his house BUILT exactly the way he wanted.']

He is married to a wonderful woman.

[INSERT ERROR 8 --- e.g., wrong pronoun: 'Everyone are proud of him.' Wait for correction: 'Everyone IS proud of him.']

And when people ask him for advice, he always says the same thing.

[INSERT ERROR 9 --- e.g., wrong inversion: 'Not only he worked hard, but he also never gave up.' Wait for correction: 'Not only DID he work hard, but he also never gave up.']

Luis's story reminds me that anything is possible.

[INSERT ERROR 10 --- e.g., wrong word formation or phrasal verb from today]"

If you don't have 10 distinct errors from the presentations, supplement with these common B2 errors:

1. "Everyone were impressed by his work." (Everyone WAS impressed)
2. "He told that he was tired." (He SAID that he was tired. / He told US that he was tired.)
3. "The house where he grew up in was small." (The house WHERE he grew up was small. --- drop 'in')
4. "She has been work here for 5 years." (She has been WORKING here for 5 years.)
5. "If he wouldn't have moved, he would still be poor." (If he HADN'T moved...)

After the story (5 min): Review any errors the class missed. Say the wrong version, then the correct version. They repeat twice.

Pairs (5 min): Say: "Think about YOUR presentation today. What was your biggest grammar error? Tell your partner. Your partner corrects you. Practice the correct version 3 times."

Walk around. Listen. Write errors on your paper.

> This activity connects directly to their presentations. The errors are THEIRS. This makes it personal and memorable.

02:40--03:00 | GROUP FEEDBACK: WHAT WAS STRONG, WHAT NEEDS WORK (20 min)

Say: "Let's talk about the presentations as a group. I want to hear from YOU --- not just me. We are going to go through each presentation."

Write on the board:

GROUP FEEDBACK

For each presenter:

1. One thing they did WELL
2. One thing they should CHANGE
3. One specific grammar structure they should ADD

BE CONSTRUCTIVE. Be specific. "It was good" is NOT feedback. "Your introduction grabbed my attention because you started with a question" IS feedback.

Go through each student (about 3 min per student):

Say: "Let's start with [Student 1's name]. Who wants to give feedback? What did they do well?"

One student gives a strength. Then: "What should they change?" Another student gives a suggestion. Then YOU add:

- "I agree with [feedback]. I would also add: [your specific note from your feedback sheet]."
- "For the final presentation, [student name], I want you to specifically work on: [1 grammar point] and [1 delivery point]."
- "Add [specific module structure] to your presentation. You can use it in the section about [specific part]."

Repeat for all 6 students. Keep it tight --- 3 minutes each. Do not let it drag.

If students are giving vague feedback ("it was nice"), push them: "HOW was it nice? WHAT specifically was good? Give me a sentence they said that was strong." / "WHAT specifically should they change? Don't say 'talk more.' Say 'in the third section, add an example to support your point.'"

Final summary (2 min). Say: "Common issues I heard today across ALL presentations:"

Pick the top 3 issues and state them clearly:

- "[Issue 1 --- e.g., 'Most of you are still using 'which' for people. It's WHO for people, WHICH for things. Fix this before the final.]"
- "[Issue 2 --- e.g., 'Half of you had weak conclusions. Your last sentence should be strong and memorable. Practice it.]"
- "[Issue 3 --- e.g., 'Filler words. I counted 15 'ums' in one presentation. Record yourself practicing and count them. Reduce to zero.]"

> This is valuable peer feedback practice. Students learn not just from their own errors but from each other's.

03:00--03:25 | FINAL PROJECT WORKSHOP: FINAL REVISIONS (25 min)

THE PROJECT MATERIALS STAY AT THE ACADEMY. Students do NOT take their project notes home. Collect everything at the end of this block.

Say: "You just got detailed feedback from me and from your classmates. Now you have 25 minutes to make revisions. This is your LAST full workshop before the final presentation. Use every minute. Fix what was wrong. Add what was missing. Practice your timing."

How this works --- you do NOT sit down and wait:

- You have 6 students. That is about 4 minutes per student.
- Go to each student WITH their individual feedback sheet. Say:
 - "Here are the 3 grammar errors you made. Fix them in your presentation now. Show me the corrected version."
 - "You were missing [module structures]. Where in your presentation can you add them? Write them in now."
 - "Your presentation was [X] minutes. You need [more/less]. Which section will you [expand/cut]?"
 - "Your introduction needs work. Rewrite your opening sentence right now. Read it to me."
 - "Your conclusion was [weak/abrupt/missing]. Write a strong final sentence. Use an inversion or a conditional to end powerfully."
 - "Practice your first minute out loud to me right now. Go."
- Specific revision suggestions:
 - "Start with a question to the audience: 'Have you ever wondered why...?'"
 - "Add a personal story in the middle. 'When I was [age], something happened that changed everything.'"
 - "Use a conditional to make a point: 'If I hadn't experienced this, I wouldn't understand...'"
 - "End with: 'Never have I been more certain that...' --- strong inversion for your conclusion."
 - "Add transitions between points: 'Not only did this affect [X], but it also changed [Y].'"
 - "You said 'um' 12 times. Practice your transition sentences so you don't need to fill the silence."
- If a student is resisting revision: "You just presented and you heard the feedback. If you don't fix these things, you will make the same errors in the final. Fix them NOW while you remember."

Last 3 min. Say: "Time is up. Show me your revised note cards." Quick check --- did they actually make changes? If yes: "Good. Practice at home." If no: "You need to revise. Come to the next class with changes made."

Remind them:

Say: "Next class we do Mock Presentations Round 2 --- full 7 to 10 minutes. That is the real length. You MUST be ready. Fix what we discussed today. Practice at home with a timer. Two weeks until the real thing."

> Active coaching. This is not free time.

■ PORTFOLIO BUILD — DAY 5: CORRECT THE RECRUITER (15 min)

■■ Use `ANEXO_PORTFOLIO_BUILD_B2_PROFESOR.pdf` (Day 5 section). 5 scripts with intentional errors available.

Today is Day 5 of the Portfolio Build Cycle. YOU pretend to be a recruiter calling the student, with intentional errors. Students listen and correct you AT THE END.

Setup (1 min): "I will pretend to be a recruiter with intentional errors. After I finish, you correct me." Pick 1 of 5 scripts (rotate weekly):

- Script A: Phone screening
- Script B: Job offer
- Script C: Rejection
- Script D: Salary negotiation
- Script E: Reference check

The script — read aloud as the "recruiter" (5 min): Read the script slowly, naturally, with the planted errors. Don't emphasize the errors — speak as if you really were a recruiter.

Correction round (8 min): "What errors did I make? Don't say all at once. Raise hands. One at a time." Each student catches 1 error → 1 English Point. For each: student says wrong version → student says correct version → class repeats correct version 2x.

Reflection (1 min): "Which error would have been EMBARRASSING in a real interview?"

> See `ANEXO_PORTFOLIO_BUILD_B2_PROFESOR.pdf` Day 5 for the 5 scripts with errors.

03:25--03:35 | SELF-CHECK + HOMEWORK + CLOSE (10 min)

Self-check (5 min):

Hand out self-check sheet. Students fill ALL fields. COLLECT. CHECK EVERY ONE: blank field = hand it back, fill it NOW. No incomplete sheets accepted. Send to coordination TODAY.

Homework (5 min):

Say: "Two homework assignments. Write these down."

Write on the board:

HOMEWORK --- DUE NEXT CLASS

1. Revise your presentation based on TODAY's feedback.
Fix every grammar error I pointed out. Add the missing module structures. Adjust your timing.
Practice at home with a timer --- at least 3 times.
Record yourself on your phone and listen back.
Count your filler words. Reduce them.

2. Write 10 sentences that correct the grammar errors you made today in your presentation. Write the WRONG version and the CORRECT version side by side.
Example:
WRONG: "If I would have studied harder..."
CORRECT: "If I had studied harder..."
Repeat for all errors from your feedback.

Say: "Next class: full 7-10 minute mock presentations. Plus exam review. You need to be ready for BOTH. Any questions? See you next class."

> AFTER DISMISSING STUDENTS:

> 1. Collect all Final Project materials. Store at the academy. Students do NOT take these home.

> 2. Send the homework as a text message in the WhatsApp group. Copy the homework assignment EXACTLY from above.

> 3. Hand in your error paper PHYSICALLY along with this printed guide to coordination. Do not photograph it. Hand in the paper.

> 4. ALSO hand in the 6 individual presentation feedback sheets. One per student, with their name, grammar errors, pronunciation notes, filler word count, structure evaluation, module structures used/missing, timing, and strengths. These go to coordination TODAY.
